ELEVEN DIE IN WRECK OF SITKA BOAT

Nine Bodies Found on Beach About Fifty Miles Southwest of Juneau—Whole Family Lost

EXPLOSION CAME OFF WHITESTONE

Shock Evidently Wrecked Boat and Left Passengers Helpless in Icy Northern Waters

JUNEAU, Alaska, Nov. 14.—Eleven persons, including seven children, probably all perished when an explosion occurred aboard their fishing craft, apparently when they were sleeping, it was revealed today, after the finding of nine unclashed bodies on a beach about fifty miles southwest of here. Capt. Johnny Albert, with his family and wife's parents, all residents of Sitka, left Hoonah a week ago, where he had been for the trailing season, to return to Sitka. As the small craft was in the entrance to Whitestone harbor between Hoonah and Sitka, it exploded, place, apparently entirely destroying the boat and leaving the unwary family helpless in the icy waters. The recovered bodies were badly discolored as though from an explosion. Searchers are seeking traces of the boat and the two missing persons.

PRINCE OF WALES' HOUSEHOLD GOODS ARE TRANSFERRED

LONDON, Nov. 12.—The Prince of Wales is expected to go into residence at Marlborough House within a few days. For some time his household goods have been undergoing the process of transference from York House, St. James Palace, the Prince being rather surprised at the number of belongings that had accumulated. There is no foundation for the report which had gained credence that the name of Marlborough House will be changed to Cornwall House in allusion to the Duchy of Cornwall from which the Prince of Wales derives his principal source of income. Already London possesses a substantial building known as Cornwall House. It comprises the headquarters of the London telephone service.

Gold Coast Not White Man's Grave

TORONTO, Nov. 14.—"Draining and sanitation are the two most important factors which have brought about the change," said Sir Gordon Guggisberg today, commenting on the suggestion that the Gold Coast should be no longer called "the white man's grave." Sir Gordon, who was born in Galt, Ontario, spent twenty-five years on the Gold Coast as governor and commander-in-chief.

Nanking Forces Expected to Be In Hankow Today

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The latest flareup in the Chinese civil war at Hankow, as indicated in dispatches received in London, appears to represent a shift in the control of the Wu Han cities from one radical leader, Gen. Tang Sheng Chi, to another, Gen. Ho Chien, with no general effect on the country at large. If anything, Gen. Chien is regarded as more moderate than Tang, and British official observers think he may reach a peaceful settlement with the Nanking Nationalist forces which are expected to arrive in Hankow tomorrow. British subjects in the native city have been advised to take refuge in concession quarters as a guard against possible disorders and looting, but thus far British marines have not landed.

REEVE ANSCOMB WILL NOT RUN

Professional Duties Debar Him From Mayoralty Candidature Next Month, He Tells Petitioners

SEES OAK BAY AS LESSON TO CITY

Mr. Herbert Anson, reeve of Oak Bay, will not be a candidate for the position of mayor of Victoria in opposition to Mayor J. Carl Pettit, to a petition heavily signed by ratepayers of the city. Mr. Anson has made the following reply: "While I have somewhat delayed answering the request contained in the petition, you were good enough to honor me with asking that I contest the mayoralty seat, the delay has been caused by my desire to eliminate if possible the circumstances which would make it impossible for me to accept."

REASONS FOR DECISION
"After a careful survey of that situation, I am reluctantly compelled to say that I find the various duties that devolve on me by virtue of my profession, prohibit me at the moment from accepting further responsibilities."

FINANCIAL REFORM
"The creative impulse behind your petition was undoubtedly one that had for its object the placing in a better position than at present the financial affairs of the City of Victoria. With that idea not only am I in full accord, but I am quite satisfied that with proper management the city could bring its tax problems into line with those of the adjoining municipality of Oak Bay. I mean, however, when I say proper management, that we need more of the application of the fundamental principles of business. If those principles were applied, and by the use thereof good heavy reduction in taxation made, the city would develop automatically—without artificial respiration—as Oak Bay has done, and is doing, by the same process."

"FREEZE-UP" ON PRAIRIE COMES

Soil Frozen Solid—Thrashing and Ploughing Stop—Final C.P.R. Crop Report Out

WINNIPEG, Nov. 14.—The last crop report to be issued by the agricultural department of the C.P.R. for this year says that generally all work has been stopped because of winter conditions. Snow covers the entire west and the soil is frozen solid. The report says that in the north the night of the tenth dropped several degrees below zero. In Manitoba thrashing for all practical purposes has been finished. In Saskatchewan 95 to 100 per cent of the wheat and 90 to 95 per cent of the coarse grains. In Alberta, 90 to 95 per cent is completed in the entire and northern sections of the province, 75 to 80 per cent in the south. One week of good weather would have seen everything thrashed. It is possible the balance may yet be done, but at present stocks are covered with snow.

Full plowing is finished in many districts, the amount done exceeding last year's acreage in each province. In Manitoba, of the intended area to be plowed, approximately 85 per cent has been accomplished. In Saskatchewan, 40 to 50 per cent, the greatest amount being in the southwest; Alberta, 20 per cent in the north, which is slightly more than last year, and about ten per cent in the south. The ground is now frozen so hard it is unlikely any more plowing can be done this year.

Warm Greeting Accorded Papal Legate

Mr. George Okell Named To Succeed Mr. William Scowcroft as Assessor

MR. William Scowcroft, city assessor, and employee of the City Hall since 1891, was given leave of absence by the City Council last night until January 15, on which date he will be superannuated. He will be the first civic employee to come under the superannuation scheme. Mr. George Okell, former member of the city council, and since 1922 assistant city assessor, has been appointed to succeed Mr. Scowcroft.

COURT ACQUITS CAROL'S FRIEND

MANOLESCU GIVEN VERDICT IN SENSATIONAL RUMANIAN TREASON TRIAL

BUCHAREST, Nov. 14.—Mihail Manolescu was acquitted early this morning by a court-martial of five judges who voted three to two to set him free. Manolescu was charged with conspiracy to bring forward Crown Prince Carol back to Rumania and to restore him to the throne. The acquittal of the former Under Secretary of State was greeted with tremendous applause. Alderman Holmes said he did not agree with it, and furthermore he had not attended the meeting from which the report emanated because he had not been summoned.

STATES HIS POSITION
In summing up his argument against the report Alderman Holmes said that he believed the reverend report because he had no other evidence. He said that the position of assessor was an extremely difficult one and one that could not be filled except by a man of wide experience and considerable knowledge of assessment work. He drew attention to the fact that lower assessed property had been assessed higher than properties on Yates and Douglas Street although the revenue from the latter was much greater.

PAPALLEGATE TO DOMINION IS HONORED

His Excellency the Most Rev. Andrea Cassulo, Apostolic Delegate, Arrives in Victoria

HEARTY GREETING ACCORDED VISITOR

Catholics of Diocese Present Address Voicing Allegiance to Pius XI, and Welcome Representative

WITH ceremonies which were becomingly impressive and dignified, His Excellency the Most Reverend Andrea Cassulo, Apostolic Delegate to Canada and Newfoundland, was last evening welcomed by the clergy and laity of the Diocese of Victoria. Probably never before in the history of the Catholic church on Vancouver Island has a more colorful pageant assembled within the walls of the Cathedral church, for in addition to His Excellency and the Bishop of Victoria, in their splendid robes, there were numerous other clergy, both visiting and local, all wearing rich vestments. Acolytes and other robed attendants added further touches of color. A guard of honor, composed of fourth degree Knights of Columbus in full dress with swords, supplemented the air of ceremony and formality which pervaded the proceedings. The high altar was ablaze with lighted candles; from the walls of sanctuary and pulpit and pillar hung the flags of yellow and white, with the papal tiara and keys superimposed; and about the feet of the statues were masses of yellow and white chrysanthemums.

The Cathedral was packed to overflowing, the galleries also being crowded. Ten or twelve rows of seats in the front of the nave were vacant during the first few moments following the arrival of the Apostolic Delegate, but these were ultimately filled by the Knights of Columbus guard of honor, in charge of Capt. V. A. Curm, of Work Point Barracks, and members of the other men's societies, such as the Holy Name Society and the Young Men's Society, who had lined the street along the route taken by His Excellency from the Bishop's Palace to the Cathedral.

During the five years of his residence here Dr. Hodgson took a prominent part in the musical life of the city. Besides practicing his profession as a teacher of music, he was supervisor of music at the High School, and received the appointment of organist at the Christian Science Church.

Messages from Moscow and Leningrad give the same report. There has been no confirmation, however, from any official sources.

Mystery Surrounds Identity of Plane Seen Over Atlantic

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Mystery today shrouded the identity of a white plane headed north and flying high, reported by the liner liner de France to have been sighted 250 miles south of Halifax. Officials of the French Line today had received no word from the ship in answer to a request for further details. Aviation authorities of the Long Island flying field were puzzled about the identity of the plane. The possibility was pointed out, however, that the plane might be one making a test flight from Canadian or Newfoundland points.

Panic-Stricken Children Run in Streets; Many Hit by Flying Glass

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 14.—An entire section of North Side Pittsburgh lay in ruins tonight, and the bodies of twenty-one persons rested in the Allegheny county morgue, mute evidence of one of the most disastrous explosions in the city's history. Death and devastation swept the old Manchester district when a mammoth storage gas tank exploded.

DEATH CALLS DR. HODGSON

Prominent Organist and Choirmaster Passes Suddenly After Five Years' Residence Here

NOTABLE CAREER IN TWO COUNTRIES

The death occurred suddenly yesterday afternoon, at the family residence, 541 Niagara Street, of Dr. John Edward Hodgson, Doctor of Music and Fellow of the Royal College of Organists.

Dr. Hodgson, who was born in Yorkshire fifty-four years ago, had been a resident of Victoria for five years, coming here from Calgary, where he had been supervisor of music for that city. He came to the Coast for his health. He first arrived in Canada in 1913.

During the five years of his residence here Dr. Hodgson took a prominent part in the musical life of the city. Besides practicing his profession as a teacher of music, he was supervisor of music at the High School, and received the appointment of organist at the Christian Science Church.

Dr. Hodgson had a distinguished musical career in the Old Country before coming to Canada. He was organist at the Glasgow Cathedral, and the Glasgow Choral Union and Scottish Orchestra, conducted by Sir Frederick Cowen and Dr. Henry Coward, from 1906 to 1911, and was associated with Dr. Coward. He was organist to the Sheffield Choir in 1911 on the world tour under the conductorship of Sir Edward Elgar.

Dr. Hodgson was a graduate in music of Durham, Eng., and McGill universities, was director of studies at the Conservatory of Music, Regina College, and at Mount Royal College, Calgary, and had a great deal of experience as an examiner in music and adjudicator at musical festivals.

He leaves, besides his widow, one son, Mr. Clifford Hodgson. The remains are resting at the S. J. Curry & Son, Funeral Home, corner of Quadra and Broughton Streets. Announcement of the funeral will be made later.

Premier MacLean Says Conference All-Round Success

WINNIPEG, Nov. 14.—"There is not the slightest evidence of anything but the best of co-operation between the east and the west," stated Premier J. D. MacLean, of British Columbia, when he returned tonight on the recent conference of premiers held in Ottawa.

"I think there will be more sympathy from now on between the eastern and western provinces," he added. "There was no discussion on any question; and though I will say nothing of whether the conference will have far-reaching results, I will say that it was a success from every angle."

Premier MacLean spent two hours in Winnipeg tonight on his way to Vancouver.

NANKING ACHIEVES COMPLETE VICTORY

SHANGHAI, Nov. 14.—The conflict between Nanking and Hankow seemed to be ended with complete victory for Nanking, which will greatly strengthen the Nanking government. The Hankowites are sending peace envoys to Nanking, and are terminating all attempts of Hankow to set up an independent government. In the meantime the disorders in the Wuhan cities—Hankow, Wuchang and Hanyang—are dying down, and Japanese marines landed at Hankow and British marines standing by in readiness to land, if needed, hope is expressed that there will be no further trouble.

Raid in Iraq

BAGHDAD, Iraq, Nov. 14.—The dispatch of a military expedition to the north of Iraq, led by a notorious Akawan chieftain, attacked an Iraqi frontier police post in the Nadrin district. The tribesmen killed five police and twelve laborers.

The Council has already agreed to put the by-law to the people. The basis of this by-law is that the city guarantee $125,000 in bonds, and give property for the mill and certain coupons on water and taxes.

Mr. John Moore, who is the operator of a worsted mill in Bradford, England, has invested $40,000 in the enterprise, while local investors have subscribed another $40,000.

The city solicitor was instructed by the Council to draft a by-law, so that it is quite probable property holders will be called upon to vote on the fourth industrial by-law before the civic election.

Special Survey Is Dated From Revival Downtown

With Movement of Property in Business District Greater Importance Attaches to Precise Location of Improvements

The petition for a resurvey of the city, sponsored by leading surveyors, large real estate and financial firms and property owners, had its origin in the revival of interest in downtown business property which has arisen during the past two years. Purchasers who put down large sums for the purchase of property naturally want to be sure that the buildings are situated within the boundaries of the land to which they acquire title, and do not encroach on adjoining property. Heavy borrowings are often required in connection with these deals, and the lender also feels it necessary to observe caution with regard to the same matter. Some of the larger lending institutions now require a certificate from a surveyor that there are no encroachments before finally paying over the amount of the loan agreed on.

LONG TIME SINCE SURVEY
From the surveyor's point of view the situation with regard to centrally located property in Victoria is a very unsatisfactory one. As explained in a recent article in these columns, sixty-nine years have elapsed since lots in the downtown business area were surveyed. At that time bearings were taken by a box compass, distances were measured by a "Gunter's" chain, which was liable to considerable expansion and contraction, and notes were made on paper with a piece of sharpened lead stuck in the end of a stick. To make matters worse, the original Plan No. 1 was drawn without showing any dimensions for the lots, although the intention, undoubtedly, was that they should measure sixty feet by one hundred and twenty feet. Not were street widths indicated on this plan except in few cases. As

MEETS LOCAL ANTI-VIVISECTIONISTS—DID GOOD WORK IN LIVERPOOL

Mrs. J. P. Hodgson Will Speak Here Shortly on International Conference on Vivisection

At a business meeting of the local anti-vivisection society the visit was reported of Andrew S. McNeil, L.R.C.P., L.R.C.S., L.D.S.C., of Liverpool, England, who is a director of the R.S.P.C.A. in that city and a pronounced opponent of vivisection. The speaker was highly complimentary to an anti-vivisection society in the far west of Canada and joined the local organization as a life member. Copies of Mr. McNeil's recent book on the Cancer Problem have been sent to public libraries by the Victoria society.

ARE YOU ENJOYING SUCH HEALTH AND ENERGY AS THIS?

Thousands Are Taking New Lease on Life as They Use the Wonderful System Builder—"Husky"

Would a feeling of real health and energy—energy that stays with you all day long—make work easier and leisure hours more enjoyable for you? Hundreds of men and women in Victoria and vicinity say "yes" and that such new health and energy is being brought to them by the wonderful health building preparation called "Husky," which is distributed by the MacFarlane Drug Co.

"Husky," due to the fact that it has an amazingly beneficial effect on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, relieves such ills as headache, dizziness, indigestion, gas and sour stomach, constipation, colds and other catarrhal affections, rheumatic pains, nervousness, insomnia, sleep and tired feelings, builds strength and gives energy.

J. M. PIERCE

The health building qualities of Husky have been well proven to this man, who says that this preparation has built him up and strengthened him as nothing else ever did.

Now, among the hundreds in this city and vicinity who are being remarkably benefited by Husky is Mr. G. Rye, who resides on the Carey Road in Saanich. Mr. Rye tells of his experience with this medicine as follows:

"For years I have suffered from indigestion and gas on my stomach. I was often in agony from these troubles after meals and would have a full bloated feeling. Since I have been using this splendid medicine, Husky, this condition of indigestion and gas has been dispelled entirely. I now certainly advise anyone suffering from these ailments to use Husky."

Call at MacFarlane's

Every person in Victoria or vicinity suffering in any way (Husky) is recommended to relieve, is urged to call at the MacFarlane Drug Co., Husky headquarters, and have this medicine and its uses explained.

Petroglyph Proves Puzzle

Above is shown part of the large petroglyph discovered on the old Indian trail south of the Fraser River, British Columbia, and near the Canadian National Railway. A petroglyph is an inscription carved on rock. In this instance, the inscriptions are principally triangular or diamond-shaped, and their meanings are not known.

vivisection movement is shown by the increasing number of societies, and the formation of a new society was reported from Edmonton, Alberta.

The International Conference on Vivisection in New York with which the Victoria society is affiliated will meet in council this week and a Bill for Exemption of Dogs from Vivisection is to be presented shortly at the next session of Congress in Washington, D.C. Signatures for the petition to present this bill are being secured locally.

Mrs. J. P. Hodgson, of Vancouver, who represented Victoria and Vancouver at the recent International Conference on Vivisection and Animal Protection in London, has returned from England and is scheduled to speak on the work of the congress before the Victoria society at a forthcoming public meeting. Addresses have been given on this question in Winnipeg, Calgary and Vancouver, and have created wide interest.

Other public meetings under arrangement are addresses by Rev. T. S. Rowe, a debate, and the showing of a film on animal protection by Mrs. Hodgson.

HERE ON MISSION TO AID COMMERCE

Director-General of Empire Trade League Tours Canada, Investigating Market Conditions

Mr. Theo. Fielden, director-general of the Empire Trade League, and editor of The Empire Mail, London, Eng., arrived in the city Saturday and is registered at the Empress Hotel, in the course of a Canadian tour.

Mr. Fielden will go to Vancouver today, returning on Thursday to meet Hon. J. D. MacLean on his return from Ottawa. It is expected he will address a meeting here later in the week under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce and Publicity Bureau.

The Empire Trade League was formed a short time ago for the purpose of bringing about a greater measure of commercial interchange among the nations comprising the British Empire. It received the backing of a large number of manufacturers and traders in England, and a large sum of money was set aside for advertising and propaganda. Already, this outfit is bringing in a return, and it is expected that when he has completed the present tour of the British Empire the league will be well along the road leading to the fulfillment of its aims.

One of the methods employed by the league to further its ends consists in securing the co-operation of English manufacturers and the good effects of the measure have already been felt. When one of the firms, which have promised co-operation, receives an order from Canada, a notice something after this fashion is posted in the workshop: "We have this week received an order worth $25,000 from Canada. It will keep 150 men employed for a period of three months. You are asked to reciprocate and so help us to obtain further orders by buying Canadian apples." This plan has already brought results and has stirred the imagination of British manufacturers to the point where they see that the league can be of great benefit, not only to themselves, but to the Empire as a whole.

Another feature of the league's activities consists in posting large advertising signs all over Great Britain to tell of the things the colonies and Dominions are doing in the way of trade. Many of the posters are designed by Royal Academicians and are something infinitely finer than the ordinary hoarding advertisement.

The Empire Mail, of which Mr. Fielden is editor-in-chief, is a monthly periodical devoted to Empire news and relations, and it works in co-operation with the league.

After Mr. Fielden has completed his tour of investigation in Canada he proposes to produce a special issue of The Empire Mail devoted to a comprehensive story of the fifty years of the Dominion's development and progress and a description of its industrial and commercial possibilities and the opportunities offered in Canada for British capital, British enterprise and British migration. His publication will shortly carry a special Canadian supplement.

TRYING TO SAVE THE SOCKEYE

After giving the matter their most serious consideration—they must have been thinking about it for fifteen or twenty years—the trap-net fishermen of the State of Washington have decided that something must be done to save from extinction the sockeye salmon which are born and bred in the Fraser River. The trap-net fishermen of the State of Washington did not reach that desirable state of mind, however, until it became unprofitable for them to catch the sockeye salmon in their nets.

The British Columbia Commissioner of Fisheries, who probably knows more about the various fishes of the Pacific Coast than any other authority in the world, has been pleading for many years with the Washington State fishermen to agree to the adoption of some form of international agreement for the preservation and perpetuation of the sockeye; but the voice of our Commissioner was as the voice of one crying in the wilderness. The Washington State fishermen were making money—for a number of years they made a vast amount of money—out of the business of taking and canning the sockeye, which, although it is one of the smallest of the salmon which is alleged not to be a true salmon, is yet the king of fish when it is in a can.

It appears, however, that Governor Hartley of the State of Washington has been authorized by the trap-net fishermen to approach the Government at Washington and suggest the negotiation of an international agreement for the salvation of the sockeye. The Government at Washington has long been agreeable to the opening of such negotiations, and an agreement would have been reached but for the opposition of the trap-net fishermen, who wanted to catch the sockeye as long as there was a sockeye to be caught at a profit. The State of Washington controls the fisheries of its coast, politics takes precedence over business amongst the politicians of that state, as indeed it does in all states, including the great State of Illinois, and the trap-net fishermen exercised a powerful political influence. That is why the fishing of sockeye was prosecuted until it became an unprofitable business. Now that it has become unprofitable, sockeye fishing has been taken out of politics, and there are bright prospects that an agreement will be reached which will save the sockeye of the Fraser River from extinction.

It would, of course, have been better for the fishermen of the State of Washington and for the fishermen of the Province of British Columbia if something had been done long ago to save the sockeye. It probably will be many years before the sockeye salmon pack on the Fraser River will again reach the old high water mark of half a million cases; but better late than never. We hope the investigations which are pending at Washington, D.C., will not prove abortive as a result of a conflict of interests between the fishermen of this province and the fishermen of the State of Washington. And we also hope that Mr. J. P. Babcock's vision of the Fraser River's sockeye fisheries, becoming a source of great permanent wealth may be realized. We further hope that Mr. Babcock's efforts to save the halibut from the fate that threatened the sockeye may be crowned with success.

HARBOR COMMISSIONERS

The harbor of Victoria seems to have been doing very well without a harbor commission, but an effort is being made to convince the people of Victoria that their harbor would do much better if it were afflicted or encumbered with a harbor commission. The movement to inflict or encumber our harbor with a commission was not started or engineered by practical shipping men or sound business men. It was started and is being engineered by practical politicians. And that is the reason why it should be looked upon with suspicion by practical shipping men and sound business men.

It is true some of the other big shipping ports of Canada are managed by commissions, and it also seems to be true that the harbor commissions in those places have enormously increased the cost of managing the harbors. Harbor commissions are like Government departments. Once they are established, the Chief Commissioners need an enormous staff to help them in the discharge of their duties. The Commissioners and their deputies expect to be well paid, and taxes are imposed upon shipping for the purpose of raising the money to pay them. The Vancouver Harbor Commission, which began to do business in a modest way, is now doing business upon a grand scale.

Mr. H. H. Stevens quoted returns in Parliament showing how magnificently the Vancouver Harbor Commission had branched out and indicating the heavy burdens it was inflicting upon the shipping of the port. We have heard it stated that the Vancouver Harbor Commission, instead of being a benefit to the port, has been a detriment to the port; that it has driven shipping out of the harbor into some other harbors. Victoria obviously cannot afford to harbor and nourish such a harbor commission as that. In course of time it may be necessary for us to have a harbor commission, but never at any time will it be wise for us to accept a harbor commission established for the purpose of providing politicians with jobs.

SILLY WAR TALK

Some of the newspapers of Great Britain and many of the newspapers of Canada are in a state of dreadful trepidation. The editors have found out by some means or other that Europe is again an armed camp and that another world war is imminent; that open diplomacy has been abandoned and secret diplomacy is established; that Italy and Hungary have reached an agreement to stand together against the secret aggressions of France and Yugoslavia. Therefore the newspapers of Britain and some of the newspapers of Canada have started an agitation for world disarmament.

The Colonist would gladly, even enthusiastically, join in that humanitarian movement if it thought its co-operation would do any good; but we do not believe the misguided mischief makers of France, or of Italy, or of Yugoslavia, read The Colonist, although it is a very widely read newspaper. We do not believe Mussolini reads The Colonist. We doubt whether the Italian dictator would disarm if he happened to pick up a copy of The Colonist and read therein our opinion that he should turn his sword into a ploughshare or some other useful agricultural implement.

Indeed, we fear neither the great British newspapers nor the smaller Canadian newspapers are generally read by the men who direct the affairs of unfortunate Europe. And we are sure the directors of the affairs of Europe, if they did read the British newspapers or the Canadian newspapers, would refuse to be dictated to by the editors of those newspapers.

We are quite sure that if the British Government were to adopt the advice so freely given it by some Canadian and certain British newspapers and scrap its fleet and disarm its little army, that its example would not be followed by armed Europe. We are almost sure that the situation in Europe is not really so alarming as it has been depicted; that Mussolini, notwithstanding his political peculiarities, does not contemplate war; that France has had sufficient experience of the consequences of war to appreciate the blessings of peace; that the agitation in Great Britain has been begun by the newspapers, if not for purely political purposes, for the purpose of starting something sensational to write about. The agitation in Britain reminds us of the assertion of Dr. Johnson that the devil was the first Whig. The British Liberals are the political descendants of the old British Whigs, and they are engaged in the work begun by their father.

That most "amusing cuss," the one hundred per cent American Mayor of Chicago, has solved the problem of history teaching in the public schools of the great central metropolis. He is going to do something that will scrap all the books from which the school children have been learning distorted if not false American history. He is going to have history and "Illinois" (he says they do not speak English in that state) taught the children through the radio. That will be great fun for the teachers and school children of Chicago. It will also have a decidedly cultural effect if some of the Mayor's political friends and supporters are permitted to address the children through the municipal microphone.

The late Mr. J. D. O'Connell, whose untimely death in Calgary is reported, was at one time a prominent business man of Victoria and had a large number of friends, who will join with us in extending expressions of deep and sincere sympathy to his wife and young family in their bereavement.

After all, this would be a dull world if Europe had not her Mussolini and America her Thompson. One is a masterful politician and the other an artful politician, and both have given the newspapers much that is interesting to print.

So many indictments are likely to be returned in the celebrated case of the United States vs. Fall and Sinclair that the persons originally indicted may be forgotten entirely before the case is finished, if it is ever finished.

Life is a long lesson in humility.—Sir James Barrie.

Be not careless in deeds, nor confused in words, nor rambling in thought.—Marcus Aurelius.

He that plants thorns must never expect to gather roses.—Pilpay.

I think it is better to do right, even if we suffer in so doing, than to incur the reproach of our consciences and posterity.—Robert E. Lee.

PIES AND TARTS

"When Charles Dickens asked for pie, there was no doubt about what he meant; whether it was apple pie, steak and kidney pie, or lamb pie, he meant and got that delicacy, made in a pie dish, the interior having been cooked together with and under its golden pastry cover."

"Nowadays there seems to be a feeling that these old fruit pies should be called tarts. Why? Those who ask for tart should be, and are, given, I hope, that confection on which the fruit or the jam is resting upon the pastry. American visitors generally make themselves clear by calling our English pies deep-dish pies, which certainly leaves no room for doubt as to what he means.—Mr. F. W. Heck, in The London Times.

COMMITTEE THANKS CITIZENS

Sir,—The Armistice Period Committee would like to thank the citizens, through the medium of your columns, for their excellent support, both moral and financial, during the Armistice celebration last year.

It is very gratifying to the Committee, as it must be to all the citizens of Victoria and district, that our efforts have met with such success.

On the financial side receipts from the sale of poppies and wreaths have fully come up to the objective aimed at. Probably the most gratifying feature of the whole celebration is the outstanding fact that the people are realizing more and more the meaning of the Armistice commemoration, and are exhibiting this not only in honoring the dead but in doing what they can for the living comrades of those who lie in Flanders fields.

It would be difficult to specially mention all those who gave valuable assistance to the committee, or to single out any one for special thanks. It would be unfair, however, not to specially thank the many energetic ladies and their convener, some of whom stood all day long on cold street corners, and all of whom were willing for the good cause to ignore the cold, the south rebuffs of the occasional seagull who volubly scorns the poppy's appeal.

Realizing as we do how frequently the business firms and citizens of Victoria are called upon to support many and varied good causes, the Armistice Period Committee is sincerely grateful to every one for helping to make this year's poppy campaign so satisfactory.

BEAUMONT BOGGS, Chairman.

C. K. MORRISON, Hon. Secretary.

A GRATEFUL TRAVELER

Sir,—Through the columns of your paper I wish to express my thanks to the superintendent of roads for the able manner in which those traveling over the Malahat on Saturday were assisted. I also thank my personal thanks to the three young men who were handling the snow plow, Messrs. J. Neil, J. Paton and R. Ackerman, for the very great assistance they gave me. These boys worked hard till long after dark, and in the process of clearing the snow, which was two feet deep on the Malahat Drive.

Public servants such as these deserve our gratitude.

PROHIBITION

Sir,—How refreshing to have read Mr. F. J. Bourne's reply to Dr. Siprell on the prohibition question as it applies to the United States. As Mr. Bourne has covered the field so well it leaves little for me to say, except that I lived in American territory for ten years and that I was under prohibition, and came to live here about sixteen months ago, and of the two evils given me the one I have chosen. I am a native-born American-born, and must compliment this province on its handling of the liquor dealers. I might say I had in my time not seen such a drunken person, which is a good deal more than I can say of the place from which I came. It is men like Dr. Siprell and his writings and twaddle that give me a pain.

A. C. KITCHLER.

BENEFITS OF PROTECTION

Sir,—I do not propose to reply to any of your correspondents on the tariff issue any other than to say that my views apply to manufactured goods and not to cereals. One has only to note what the United States has done and what progress that country is making in the commercial world under a protective tariff to satisfy themselves that it is protection that builds up a country and its people. Enough said.

Your leader in today's issue on game protection should be well supported by all lovers of fin and feather. There is no question that in this locality game of every description is becoming very scarce and should not be wantonly killed for the sake of killing. Last year my game was visited by several coveys of grouse and pheasants. I have only seen one single bird this year, and two deer. The inference is that the game is being exterminated. Give all game a chance to multiply and lovers of sport will go home with good bags.

SAVIRA LODGE, November 10, 1927.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

Sir,—Mr. P. R. Leighton's letter on waterworks matters is only one of the items that calls for a change in our city management of affairs. We hear of a tourist who comes to the city and buys a house or a piece of property as a wonderful transaction, but how little do we hear of the hundreds of homes and city lots that have become city property, because hundreds of our citizens have had to leave, unable to get employment. I cannot help but think if the $100,000 that has been spent on advertising for tourists the last four years had been used towards industries and improving our city, we would be in a better financial condition than we are. If you read an advertisement about Victoria generally the principal item is Butchart's Gardens.

Now, Sir, if more money was on hand to beautify our parks and streets it would give employment. Then there is our Ross Bay Cemetery that hundreds sleep during the year for the fact that the city has been a disgrace to the city. This is like it is because one self-opinionated man was chairman and took it upon himself to try to make the various churches pay for the

How fair their faith! even at their command
Mountains were moved and forests with their trees;
They made the glorious temple of our land,
Girt with the silver walls of three great seas;
And gave within its precincts lasting peace,
Gave it a name that breathed nor strife nor schism,
And on the altar of old fealties
Lit the rich flame of a new patriotism.

How fair the glory showeth where they trod:
Still, still they build the house of nationhood,
Where floors grow golden with the harvest sod,
And cities raise their columns richly hewed;
And we their sons build too, build too, ah, God!
E'en with their faith, their joy, their fortitude.

Attractive Programme Arranged for B.C. Division of Canadian Mining Institute Session

An unusually interesting programme has been arranged for the meeting of the British Columbia division of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy in Vancouver on November 23 and 24, and in Nanaimo on November 25. The sessions in Vancouver will be held in the Hotel Vancouver, and those in Nanaimo at the St. John's Hall.

There will be four technical sessions on the first two days of the meeting. The morning session of November 23 will be devoted to reviews of mining conditions in the province by the Provincial Mineralogist, the resident engineers and by Dr. V. Domagie, of the Geological Survey.

There will be a luncheon in the hotel at noon under the auspices of the Mining Bureau of the Vancouver Board of Trade. In the afternoon the following papers will be presented and discussed: "The Eastern Contact Zone of the Coast Range Batholith on the Stikine River," by Dr. F. A. Kerr; "The Association of Ore Deposits With Minor Intrusives in British Columbia," by Dr. S. J. Schofield; and "Recent Developments in Metallurgy," by Professor H. N. Thompson.

At the two sessions on Thursday, November 24, the papers to be presented include: "The Placer Mining Situation in British Columbia," by Rupert W. Hagen; "Results of Modern Electrical Prospecting," by Hans Lundberg; "Recent Developments in Electrical Prospecting," by S. F. Kelly; "Recent Improvements in Flotation Practice," by W. B. Tinn, Mines Branch, Ottawa; "Flotation Practice at the Sullivan Concentrator," by C. T. Oughtred; and "The Concentration of Britannia Ores," by H. A. Pearce.

The Lieutenant-Governor will be the guest of honor at the dinner in the evening. Immediately following the dinner, Colonel W. W. Foster will lecture on the "Retreat From Mons."

On Friday morning the members will proceed by steamer to Nanaimo, where a "Coal" session will be held in the afternoon. Here the following papers will be presented: "The Microscopic Examination of Coal," by Dr. V. Domagie; "The Production of Liquid Fuels From Coal," by Professor Robert H. Clark; and "Recent Advances in Utilization and Beneficiation of Coal in Washington," by Professor Joseph Daniels, of the University of Washington. In addition a motion picture film will be shown of "Brown Coal Mining and Briquetting in Australia."

A dinner will be held in the evening at the Malahat Hotel, with Hon. William L. Mackenzie, Minister of Mines, as guest of honor. During the course of the evening Dean R. W. Brock will deliver a brief address on "The Situation in China."

SO MANY BOOKS

So many books, and written here life's every aspect, true and clear; but wearily I turn sometimes from fact and fiction, prose and rhyme, and find that book-filled walls seem close and dim, they hem me round with silence grim, and I would learn the truths of life and love, and amidst its tumult and its strife, and not from wisdom dead and cold like that these volumes can unfold. The truths of joy, of pain, of love, through wealth and poverty, I would prove; nor leave one vital page unturned, but glean all the for which I yearned! So many books, such splendid store of life's fancies, all earth's lore; but I would rove far, far away; so many books make life too grey.

MORE INTEREST IN BOYS URGED

Task of British Columbians Clear, Mr. G. L. Goodwin Says in Address to Victoria Gyros

The task of public spirited citizens is to take a greater interest in the development of the boyhood of British Columbia, according to Mr. George L. Goodwin, of the National Council of the Y.M.C.A., who yesterday addressed the Victoria Gyro Club on the theme, "The Boy," at the weekly luncheon of the organization in the Chamber of Commerce Cafe.

Mr. Goodwin compared the boy with an automobile, which delights with its beauty, speed and strength. He pointed out that seventy-eight per cent of the boy's energy is expended in physical effort. This is the reason why the Young Men's Christian Association has concentrated great efforts towards the direction of the boy in athletic activity.

The speaker stated that while the Y.M.C.A. promoted fully the physique of the boy, it at the same time assisted in the development of the educational, social and religious sides of the boy's life.

Inquiring if the boy was "hitting on all four cylinders," Mr. Goodwin declared that it was essential for the boy to have the four sides of his life properly developed to reach the real state of manhood.

Mr. Goodwin explained the reason of his visit to Victoria at this time, stating that he was here to rally support for the local Y.M.C.A., which is endeavoring to clear itself of a burdensome debt.

It was announced that the Gyro Club will enter a team in the inter-club relay race at the Rotary Club's mammoth ice carnival at the Willows Arena on Saturday night next.

EMINENT POET TO COME SOON*MR. ALFRED NOYES WILL ARRIVE HERE NEXT WEEK FOR LECTURE-RECITAL

Has Just Issued Fourth Volume of Collected Poems First to Canadian Tour

DR. ALFRED NOYES

More than usual interest attaches to the forthcoming visit to Victoria of Dr. Alfred Noyes, C.B.E., Litt.D., the eminent poet, who is to give a lecture-recital at the First United Church on Monday evening, November 21. Mr. Noyes is touring Canada under the auspices of the National Council of Education. He is accompanied by his wife, to whom he was married in London in September, and they will be guests at Government House while here. Apropos of their visit to Canada, Madge Macbeth says in part in The Toronto Saturday Night: "Mr. Noyes, before sailing for Canada on October 15, passed through a memorable ten days. Within that time he celebrated his forty-seventh birthday, his marriage to Mrs. Weld-Blundell, and the publication of the fourth volume of his collected poems."

Mrs. Alfred Noyes, who, like her husband, is looking forward with eagerness to their visit to Canada, is a young and exceedingly charming woman whose appearance brings to one's mind the old-fashioned description of "elegant." She belongs to a family associated with public life as well as with the army to a marked degree. Her father, Captain Jasper Charles Mayne, C.B.E., was the son of Colonel Charles O'Way Mayne, of the Indian Staff Corps, and he himself was at one time A.D.C. to Sir Frederick Weld (once Governor of Western Australia) and married his daughter, Captain Mayne was also military secretary and A.D.C. to the Governor of South Africa years ago, so Mrs. Noyes has a decided connection with the outer Empire, to which will be happily added her first visit to Canada.

A NUMBER of prominent business men, who are directors of the Victoria Y.M.C.A., met the finance committee of the City Council yesterday requesting that the city make an annual grant of $5,000, including taxes, to the Y.M.C.A. It was pointed out that the Y.M.C.A. was accumulating arrears each year. Alderman P. R. Brown, chairman of the finance committee, said yesterday that the city was already giving $1572, which was the amount of the 1927 taxes. The committee asked for a financial statement of the Y.M.C.A., which will be presented to the council next Monday.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 14.—After being marooned on a large cake of ice in Lake Winnipeg for many hours, Dan Maas, a fisherman, of Winnipeg Beach, was rescued late Saturday by the steamship Wolvener. Winnipeg Beach is sixty miles north of here.

Maas was in an exhausted condition when rescued. He spent all night Friday on the ice cake after a vain attempt to reach shore and was twice immersed in the cold lake waters.

While fishing he became separated from his small boat. The boat was caught in drifting ice and carried away. Stormy conditions, with an exceptionally high wind, prevailed at the time, and his attempts to reach shore for the boat proved ineffectual. During the night Maas drifted five miles on the ice cake.

TWO FACE ASSAULT
COUNTS IN COURT*Charles Bienemann and David Elliott Remanded for Hearing Until Thursday Morning

Charles Bienemann appeared in the City Police Court yesterday to face charges of assaulting his wife, Lily Bienemann. The accused pleaded summary trial, and entered a plea of not guilty. Magistrate George Jay granted a remand in the case until Thursday morning.

Charged with assaulting and wounding Russell George Stinson on November 11, David Elliott was remanded until Thursday. The accused reserved election and plea, and was released on bail of $2,000, in two sureties of $1,000 each. Mr. E. C. Lowe appeared as counsel for Elliott. City Prosecutor Claude L. Harrison informed the court that the trouble arose out of a debt which was owed by Stinson to Elliott.

As a result of a raid made by Chief of Police John Fry, Sergeant Thomas Healey and Constable Blackstock at 966 Fort Street, Irene McDonald was arraigned in the Police Court yesterday on a charge of being the keeper of a common bawdy house, and Helen Le May and J. Henderson were charged with being inmates of the said house. The three accused reserved plea through counsel, Mr. E. C. Lowe, and the cases were adjourned until Friday next. Irene McDonald was liberated on cash bail of $200, while the two others were released on $50 bail each.

Pleading guilty to a charge of driving by a standing street car, Samuel Hirsch was fined the sum of $15. P. P. Ingram paid the court $10 for turning his automobile in the middle of the block.

The aftermath of the storm occupied public service corporations during the week-end. Telephone and telegraph services, and also the high tension line of the B.C. Electric Railway suffering from the severe storm, and cold weather up-Island.

A significant incident of the change of temperature according to elevation was shown at Bamerton. Short circuits, following serious trouble in the Highland district where the transmission line crosses the Goldstream Falls, led to the necessity of repairs being urgent, and on investigating on the Malahat, as it lay under a blanket of snow, it was found that frozen sleds were suspended from the wires at the drive level, half-way down the Bamerton Road soft snow lay on the ground, while at the sea level rain was falling. It was this complication of conditions which made more trouble than would an ordinary winter storm. The management feared there would have been an interruption of service to Victoria, and had the steam plant at Brentwood standing by for the expected emergency, but thanks to the existence of two independent transmission lines to Jordan River, the pressure passed without service interruption.

There was some trouble on the Alberni Summit with the overland telegraph, and the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway, though operating throughout the storm, had a considerable quantity of snow on the tracks, notably at Courtenay, Arrowsmith, Ladysmith, and on the Malahat.

Telephone services were seriously interrupted, and repair gangs were busy at several points during the week-end.

Normal conditions are being gradually resumed throughout the Island. It appears that Victoria suffered less inconvenience from the storm than any other settled section of Vancouver Island.

OF CITY STREETS IS IN VIEW THIS YEAR

The Christmas decorations to be carried out on the business streets of the city under the arrangements that have been endorsed by the Retail Section of the Chamber of Commerce, are being arranged for by the Savory Seed & Flower Company, of this city. Mr. Joseph D. O'Connell, a resident of Victoria for many years, died at Calgary on Sunday morning following an illness of a month's duration, according to word reaching here yesterday. Mrs. O'Connell is also lying seriously ill at the family home at Calgary.

Born at Lindsay, Ontario, about forty-four years ago, the late Mr. O'Connell was connected with the Sellers-Gough Company for several years and came to Victoria in 1910, opening up a store in partnership with Mr. B. F. Fitzpatrick. The partnership was dissolved. Mr. O'Connell forming a company under the name of O'Connell's Limited, moving to the Arcade Building, and transferring temporarily to Government Street after the Arcade Building fire.

Entering the insurance business, Mr. O'Connell became district manager for one of the large companies with offices in the Pemberton Building. He was a prominent member of the Roman Catholic community, being on the advisory board to Bishop Macdonald, and was also state deputy of the Knights of Columbus. He was deeply interested in Rotary affairs, being president of the local club at one time and a director of the Publicity Bureau. He was also an active member of the old Board of Trade and the Pacific Club.

Moving from here to Vancouver with his family, Mr. O'Connell became manager of the men's furnishings department of the Hudson's Company, being later transferred to the Calgary store, where he held a similar position until the time of his death.

GRAIN ELEVATOR CAUSES DISPUTE

CITY COUNCIL DISAGREES AS TO DISTRIBUTION OF FIRE INSURANCE POLICIES

Matter Referred to City Solicitor—Provision for Meeting Interest on Bonds Also Questioned

Distribution of fire insurance policies on the Panama Pacific Grain Terminal, Ltd., grain elevator was the cause of a dispute on the floor of the City Council chamber at last night's meeting.

The dispute arose out of a letter from Messrs. Tait & Marchant, solicitors for the grain company, in which the council was asked to place the insurance on the company's policy, which the council had done in the past, that is, distribute the patronage among the various agents in the city.

Alderman Woodward said he was afraid the company would look upon such action of the city as a piece of impertinence. It was the company's money that was paying for the insurance and surely they should have the right to say where the insurance should be placed.

It was pointed out, however, that the insurance was for the purpose of protecting the city as the work progressed on the elevator, as it was city money that would be erecting the elevator.

STICKS TO POINT
Alderman Holmes thought that the placing of insurance should be left to the discretion of the grain company, but Alderman Brown again supported his motion, stating that the facts of the case were that the five bids received from insurance companies were from the same agent. The names of the insurance companies soliciting patronage were named at the council meeting.

Alderman Holmes then replied that the agent for these companies had been approached by the Panama Pacific Grain Terminal, Ltd., at a time when local support was needed and that he had invested a substantial sum in the undertaking.

Another matter left in the hands of the city solicitor in connection with the grain elevator was the point brought up by Alderman Mara as to what provisions were being made by the company to meet the interest on the bonds to be floated by the city for the company. Alderman Mara thought that the company should be asked what provisions were being made.

Alderman Woodward took the attitude that the city had entered into an agreement with the company, and to ask such a question twelve months before the company would be expected to produce the interest on the bonds would be an insult and a reflection on the directors of the company.

RADIO

No Batteries No Chemicals

In 1925, while skeptics and critics were loudly declaring that the direct operation of a radio set from A.C. current (eliminating all batteries, chemicals, chargers, etc.) could not be done, young "Ted" Rogers, of Toronto, DID IT—and this, Canada's contribution to the development and progress of radio, was the greatest forward step since the invention of the vacuum tube.

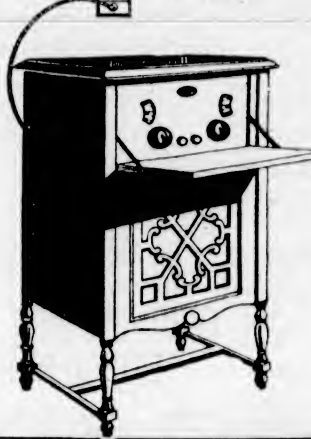

Now, in its third year, the Rogers stands supreme as the pioneer of "Electric" Radios. Today radio sets operating direct from any light socket, without batteries, chemicals or chargers, are not merely an accepted success but are the standard, and will, within another year, completely supersede battery sets where electric current is available.

With five years of research and experiment behind it; with three years of proven performance; with the record of having, alone and unaided, developed the batteryless principle for others to emulate, the Rogers is the logical, the sensible choice of every purchaser who desires a batteryless set that has successfully passed the period of experiment and test, with its accompanying grief.

The Canadian public have already spent about two millions of dollars for Rogers Batteryless Radios, and from Halifax to Vancouver they have proved their worth by the one true test—continuous performance, with uniform, everlasting power.

Cameo Console

A 5-tube Rogers-Batteryless Receiver, combined with Junior Symphony Horn—a very compact yet efficient powerful Receiver.

Three Years of Proven Performance

With such a record behind it, everyone who intends to buy a radio this Fall should see and hear the Rogers now. There will be a hundred special events broadcast this season that you won't want to miss. If used only for these major events a Rogers will more than repay you. Then there will be the myriad of daily programs to afford you pleasure and entertainment by the touch of a button and turn of a dial—today, tomorrow—for years to come.

Let Us Demonstrate in Your Home

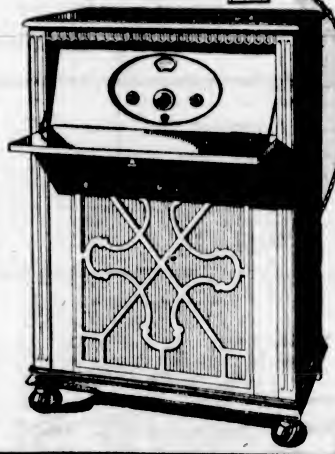

The place to test a radio is where it is going to be used—in your home. We will place a Rogers in your home for test and demonstration, and if it does not perform to YOUR satisfaction you may return it FREE of all cost. Rogers sets cost you no more than any other first-grade radio—$220 to $435 for the standard models—payable on terms to suit you. It takes only a few minutes to install a Rogers and less than 5c a week to operate it.

City & District

On Return Trip—Hon. J. D. MacLean, Premier of the Province, is on his way home from the Interprovincial Conference at Ottawa.

It is anticipated that he will reach Victoria by Thursday. The Attorney-General, Hon. A. M. Manson, will be a few days later in getting back from the absence of the week. Premier the decorations have been busy with his private office. The same advantage was taken of the absence of the Deputy Minister of Finance, Mr. E. D. Johnson, also to renovate his office.

Fire Report—The October report of the City Fire Department received at last night's meeting of the City Council, notes that loss to buildings and contents by fire during the month amounted to $44,444. A total of sixteen alarms were received. There were 187 drills, 391 burning permits issued, 546 buildings inspected and eighteen prevention notices served. There was one police court conviction.

Public Playground—Consideration will be given by the parks and lands committee of the City Council to the application from the Oaklands Parent-Teacher Association for a public playing ground in the Oaklands district. The city has ten re-verted lots reserved for playground purposes near the Oaklands School. This district is the only one in the city that has not a public playground.

Premier to Speak—Hon. Dr. J. D. MacLean, Premier of British Columbia, who is now en route back to the Pacific Coast after attending in Ottawa the Interprovincial conference of Premiers, will address the Men's Canadian Club of Victoria on Friday next, at a luncheon in the Empress Hotel ballroom. Premier MacLean's theme will be, "Glimpses of the Interprovincial Conference." Tickets for the gathering may be had by members of good standing, at Cochran's drug store, Douglas Street.

Presentation Made—The Sergeant's Men of the 16th Battalion, Canadian Scottish, made a presentation to Regt. Sergeant Major Wilson of 522 Rthet street, last evening, on the occasion of his birthday. The gift took the form of a handsome silver cigarette case with the crest of the battalion engraved thereon. The presentation was made by C. S.M. William Loney, who stated that although the sergeant's men, the value of the work done by the regimental was beyond question. Sgt. Major Wilson thanked his colleagues for their gift and expressed his appreciation.

Prudence Says So

Some Distinctive and Uncommon Dishes Produced From the Commonest but Most Popular of Vegetables—Dignifying the Humble Spud and Making Him Appealing to Most Epicurean Tastes

While perhaps the most valuable food vegetable in existence, and the staple diet of millions, the humble potato—unromantic, solid "spud"—has been losing his popularity recently for the great army of "antifats" have somewhat spurned him. In spite of this fad we are told that we can live on potatoes alone, and this can hardly be said of anything else, except perhaps plantains or bananas, and, of course, wheat. Baked, boiled and fried—and after that the cook's imagination is exhausted. But there are other ways of preparing potatoes to be most interesting, appetizing and often very decorative dishes.

Of course, the only real way to enjoy a potato, says a small friend, is to take it out of a smoldering bonfire, charred and very crisp.

SMART ensemble indeed is this exquisite May Belle Pyjama and Dressing Gown. Beautifully tailored—in all the popular pastel shades of lovely, lustrous lockitch rayon—with contrasting bands, and trimmed with delicately handpainted flowers (guaranteed washable)—truly a gift for any goddess! This is just one of the many May Belle Pyjamas and Dressing Gowns which may be had in sets or just the individual garment.

Moreover, all May Belle Lingerie is made from our own superb, lockitch rayon, guaranteed to excel in service and to retain its lovely sheen and beautiful color. Look for the May Belle label.

when in hue, and if you are lucky enough to have secured a place where the fire was not too hot and its little brown jacket is still intact, there is a thrill which comes in the eating of such a "spud" which can be produced by no other means.

Here are a few out-of-the-ordinary potato recipes:
Carrot Pudding
One and a half cups of flour, one cup of sugar, one cup of chopped suet, one cup of raisins, one cup of currants, one cup of potatoes grated, one cup of carrots grated, one teaspoon of soda. Steam or boil for three hours.

Potatoes and Cheese
Take four large, cold, boiled potatoes, four eggs, a pint of cream, three ounces of cheese, salt and pepper. Cut the potato into thin slices and arrange in layers in a buttered dish; sprinkle each layer with cheese, salt and pepper, and pour over a little of the eggs, beaten and mixed with the cream. Bake about half an hour. Serve as a luncheon dish, or with ham or broiled beefsteak.

Potato Mireton
Boil or steam twelve fair-sized potatoes in their skins. Skin, mash and season them with salt and pepper. Mince up a small onion, and fry it in two tablespoonfuls of cooking butter. When the onion is light brown, add in the mashed potatoes; stir all well, and put in a tablespoonful of mushroom ketchup or some similar flavoring, and two eggs well beaten. Sprinkle a buttered mould with breadcrumbs and bake the mixture in it for half an hour. Moderate oven.

The following are prize recipes by Mrs. E. W. Darius, of Gordon Head, who was one of the most successful competitors in last year's potato show, and whose potato dishes aroused much comment:
Chocolate Potato Gems
A quarter of a cup of butter, half a cup of sugar, three-quarters of a cup of dry cooked potatoes, one egg, a quarter of a teaspoon of salt, one square of chocolate, three teaspoons of baking powder, half a cup of white flour. Cream the butter and sugar, add the well-beaten egg and the warm potatoes. Beat well. Sift the salt, flour and baking powder and then add to the first mixture. Add melted chocolate. If too dry add a little milk. Bake about fifteen minutes.

Pete-de-Nonne
Six potatoes boiled and mashed, beat into them two eggs. Two or three tablespoonfuls of thick cream, pepper, salt, a pinch of mixed spice and a tablespoonful of sweet herbs; the mixture ought to be about the consistency of firm mashed potatoes. Have ready a pan of deep fat, take up on the tip of a knife little bits of the potato, about the size of a walnut and slip into the fat, frying a nice golden brown.

Potato Souffle
Mash potatoes fine, turn into a bowl and knead in enough flour to make a nice firm dough, turn on to a board and roll out to one-inch thickness, cut into scones, and bake in oven or on a hot griddle. These scones may be split and fried in butter next day, and are delicious.

Shepherd's Pie

NATIONAL HOCKEY LEAGUE STARTS TONIGHT

FIVE GAMES WILL USHER IN SEASON ON EASTERN RINKS

Year Gives Every Promise of Attracting Record Breaking Interest and Financial Returns—Four New Managers to Make Debut—Former Victoria Squad to Play Pittsburgh

Champion Senators Will Battle Montreal Maroons on Ottawa Ice

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The "Big League" hockey season for 1927-28, giving every promise of attracting record-breaking interest and financial returns, starts tomorrow night on three American and two Canadian rinks. The ten clubs of the National Hockey League will take up the battle for the Stanley Cup and the world's professional championship that goes with it, now in the hands of the Ottawa Senators.

The opening games will find the titleholders meeting Montreal Maroons at Ottawa; the Montreal Canadiens opposing New York Americans at Madison Square Garden; New York Rangers playing the Maple Leafs at Toronto; Chicago Black Hawks starting the season at Boston; and Detroit chasing the puck at Pittsburgh.

TWO DIVISIONS

As last year, the league will be divided into two divisions, one known as the international group, and including the four Canadian outfits, along with the New York Americans. The other five clubs are in the American division. Teams finishing first and second in each group play off at the end of the season to decide the intergroup contestants for the Stanley Cup title series.

Four new managers will make their debut. Wilfred "Shorty" Green, former right winger, will be in charge of the New York Americans; Barney Stanley, a Western Canadian hockey product, will manage the Chicago Black Hawks; Connie Smythe, who piloted the University of Toronto sextette to several international intercollegiate titles, will direct the rejuvenated Toronto Maple Leafs; and Jack Adams, former Ottawa star centre player, will be in charge of the Detroit Cougars.

MAPLE LEAF LINE-UP

TORONTO, Nov. 14.—The Maple Leaf line-up for the game against New York Rangers in the opening of the N.H.L. schedule here tomorrow night, was announced tonight. Bill Carson will be at centre; Bawley at right wing, and Keating at left wing, with Duncan and Day forming the rear guard in front of Roach. Cox, Ramsay, McCaffery, Gorman and Patterson will do the relief work.

The regular Ranger team of last year will oppose the Leafs. Chabot, Johnson and Abel, defence, and Frank Boucher and the Cook brothers on the forward line, will start. It is announced.

Jones Keeps Eyes Over Putting Line

With the date for the first game of the Wilkerson Cup intercity hockey games less than a month away, the newly formed Victoria City Hockey Club is rapidly running into shape. At a meeting held in the Chamber of Commerce last night, Louis Teweel, secretary, presided, and Harold Hewlett, secretary-treasurer, J. J. Hickey, formerly of Port Arthur, and George I. Warren, were elected vice-presidents.

Honorary officers were elected as follows: Honorary president, Hon. W. C. Nichol; honorary vice-presidents, Mayor Carl Pendray and W. H. Wilkerson.

The executive committee, in addition to the officials, will be Alex Straith, Hughie Burnett, "Chet" Downman, Jack Sanders and Stan Stanger.

In addition to the cup games with the Mainlanders, it is hoped to have at least one exhibition game with Port Arthur.

Victoria's new hockey machine will adopt a barber pole sweater design, with green, red, white and black stripes. On the front a large "V" with Victoria's woven around it, will distinctly display the name of the club.

Such players as Alex Straith, Stan Stanger, Claude Belcher, Jack Sanders, "Chet" Downman and Jimmy Foster have been lined up, who, with the inclusion of new players, should be able to make a good showing against any amateur club in the province.

The local team has been holding practices at the Willows every Tuesday and Thursday, and judging by their showing they will be in good trim for the opening fixture.

There is a possibility of an exhibition game being played on November 25 with one of the clubs from the Mainland. The teams which will be seen in action here during the winter season will be the Towers, Monarchs and Ex-King Oilers, whose 137 pounds make him ineligible for a chance at the title in the 10-round engagement at the Coliseum.

Mandell has been in training at his home in Rockford and in Chicago for several weeks and has said he expects to fight at least once a month until all the aspirants have been given a crack at his chin.

To Myers, Mandell pits his speed and flashing left jab against a tough and hard hitting Joe. Mandell's crown will not be at stake as both men will fight over the 135-pound limit.

ROUGH RIDERS WILL NOT BE INVITED TO COME TO VICTORIA

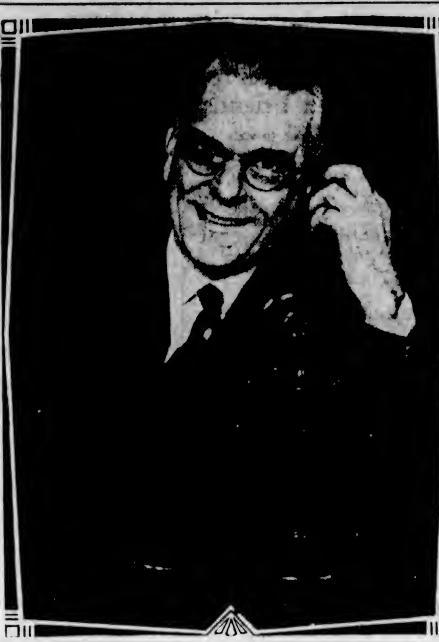

VANCOUVER, Nov. 14.—Regina Rough Riders, Prairie champions, will play University of British Columbia here this week for the Rugby championship of Western Canada. The Rough Riders left Regina last night for the Coast, having accepted an offer of the British Columbia Rugby Union to guarantee a $1,200, tickets for sixty per cent of the gate receipts. Officials of the union yesterday were notified of the game of the series will be played on Wednesday afternoon and the second game on Saturday.

Coach Ernie Cook stated last night that owing to the commencing of English Rugby and ice hockey here, no invitation would be extended to the Rough Riders to visit Victoria. He stated that the necessary practices would interfere too much with the other sport.

Dandurand's Statement Is News to Frank Patrick

MONTREAL, Nov. 14.—Le Bulletin, Montreal weekly, published the following under the signature of Leo Dandurand, managing director of the Canadiens N. H. L. team: "We know from an absolutely reliable source that Frank Patrick is to be given the management of one of the N.H.L. clubs. Frank is disposing of his numerous interests in British Columbia, and will then return to command and live in the East again. Frank and Lester were born in Drummondville, and it is only natural that the province of Quebec has attraction for them."

VANCOUVER, Nov. 14.—"It is news to me," was Frank Patrick's comment when the Canadian Press tonight drew his attention to the Montreal dispatch reporting Leo Dandurand as saying that he (Patrick) would dispose of his British Columbia interests and return to Eastern Canada to manage a team in the N.H.L.

Wednesday League to Be Busy Tomorrow—Tillcum and Bays Will Fight for Second Berth

SAANICH UNITED TO MEET TOMMIES

After a week's lay-off on account of the Thanksgiving holiday, Wednesday League soccer clubs will resume activities tomorrow with a full card of fixtures as follows:

Tillcum vs. Hudson's Bay, at Royal Athletic Park; referee, Hiewison.

Navy vs. Rennie & Taylor, at Beacon Hill, lower ground; referee, Mackay.

Saanich United vs. Garrison, at Beacon Hill, upper ground; referee, Kerr.

All games will commence at 2:45 o'clock sharp.

With second berth at stake, Tillcum-Hudson's Bay encounter, at the Royal Athletic Park, should be the feature attraction. The departmentals suffered a 5-2 defeat in their meeting of these clubs, but that is the only setback of the Bays so far. Their opponents lost their only game to the league-leading Bakers by a 2-0 count.

Tomorrow these clubs will be fighting to hold on to second position.

BAKERS MEET NAVY

Rennie & Taylor, who are holding the premier position by a two-point margin, will face a strong Navy eleven at Beacon Hill.

The sailors have had some difficulty in the past, and have only one win chalked up to their credit. Tomorrow, with a strong team, they hope to take the measure of the undefeated Rennie & Taylor aggregation.

The Garrison will meet Saanich United at Beacon Hill, upper ground, in the third game of the day. Saanich has gathered together some new material including Gilliam, well-known goal tender, and hope to halt the Tommies.

Dundee's Manager Says Well-known King Will Not Fight Again in California

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 14.—A declaration that Joe Dundee, well-known boxing champion, never will defend his title in a California ring during the regime of the present boxing commission, was made by his manager, Max Warman, as the pair boarded a train for Chicago Saturday night.

"We came here with every intention of fighting Ace Hudkins," Warman said. "We have spent more than two months and several thousand dollars and all we have to show for our efforts is a lot of grief."

Although Dundee and Warman were to face trial December 2 on charges of false advertising growing out of the Dundee-Hudkins title fight of November 3, they left with the consent of City Prosecutor Luckley, who issued the warrant for their arrest.

Mandell to Fight Spud Myers Tonight

CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—Sammy Mandell, lightweight champion of the world, has finished his tour of one-night stands and embarked upon a campaign against the top-notchers in his division who have been awaiting him for more than a year.

Tomorrow night Mandell tackles Spud Myers of Pocatello, Idaho, slightly heavier than the lightweight champion, and a hard puncher, whose 137 pounds make him ineligible for a chance at the title in the 10-round engagement at the Coliseum.

Mandell has been in training at his home in Rockford and in Chicago for several weeks and has said he expects to fight at least once a month until all the aspirants have been given a crack at his chin.

GOLF STARS GATHERING AT PORTLAND

American Champ, Armour and Many Others to Play in Oregon Open This Week

PURSE OF $3,500 TO BE PLAYED FOR

Pick of Coast Amateurs Will Take Part in Big Tournament—Qualifying Round Thursday

TOMMY ARMOUR

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 14.—Portland, much in the public eye with its golf, offers the biggest eyeful of all this week, when it stages the Oregon Open at Waverley Country Club next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Designed to catch the Eastern professional cracks who, with their jobs in mothballs for the winter, are at liberty and looking around for what-have-you, the Portland tournament is going to realize the desire of the home folks. They are going to have a score or more of the country's best in this week's lists.

PURSE OF $3,500

A purse of $3,500 has been raised, through an advance sale of gallery tickets plus a small underwriting which eventually will be taken care of by entry fees and the remaining gallery sale. The winner will get $1,000 for his.

Up from the P.G.A. championship at Dallas, Tex., will come a number of the professionals, including the National Open champion, Tommy Armour, and Al Espinosa who was beaten by Hagen at the thirty-three hole in the semi-final match.

From throughout the Pacific Northwest from California will go the company of Coast professionals, while the amateur strength of the North Coast will be out in force. Portland alone will enter certain amateurs, any one of whom may win this same championship.

PICK OF AMATEURS ENTER

The Dolphin and the Moss, Dr. F. Willing, Rude Wilhelm, Chandler Egan and Guy Sierstedt who represent the Portland amateur batting strength.

To encourage the amateur entry four prizes have been provided, two for first and second gross and two for first and second net scores.

Assured competitors from Seattle are Walter Purdy, Johnny Jones, Curly Hueston, Mortie Dura, who is going from Tacoma and Bill Cooper from Aberdeen. At the last moment Seattle's two well-known amateurs, Don Stein and Chuck Hunter, Western amateur winner and runner-up, respectively, may decide to take part in the three-day competition at Portland.

Eighteen holes will be played Thursday and Friday and the low sixty-four will qualify for the final thirty-six holes on Saturday. The championship is being taken off the seventy-two aggregate play.

Tony Manero, of New York, was first on the scene. He has had several days' practice over Waverley, and Bobby Cruikshank notified Neil Christian yesterday they would arrive at Portland last night.

Leo Diegel, Espinosa, Bill Melhorn and others are expected in early this week.

Bobby Eber in Draw

BRITANNIA MINES, Nov. 14.—Tom Burge, clever English milt star, boxed six rounds to a draw against the veteran Bobby Eber in the main event of a smoker Saturday night. Burge is only twenty years old, but the fact that he took the measure of Harry Polet, clever Nanaimo play, gave him plenty of supporters. Eber fought a heady battle and his experience, especially in the infighting, easily earned him an even break.

Colwood Links Open

After being closed over the weekend on account of snow, the Colwood Links was opened yesterday.

DEAN NETS TWO FOR EVERTON XI

Fine Work Keeps League Leaders Out in Front—40,000 Watch Hotspurs Down Aston Villa

LONDON, Nov. 14.—A fine individual performance by Dean, who helped Everton maintain their position at the head of the standing of the English League, First Division, was again the feature of soccer achievements on Saturday. Dean bagged a brace of goals in his finest style. Derby County, although at home, were blanketed by Reir, of Liverpool, and Halliday, of Sunderland, both of whom performed the "hat trick."

The highest score of the day was that of Moore, of Bradford City, who made five goals for playing against Nelson.

Buchan got a couple and materially assisted his team, Arsenal, to trim Middlesbrough.

The most impressive victory was that of Huddersfield Town over the once great Sheffield United. Huddersfield scored seven to Sheffield's one. W. H. Smith, Jack and Brown all scored two.

40,000 AT BIRMINGHAM

The attendance record for the day among the major clubs was a crowd of 40,000 who turned out to see Tottenham Hotspurs defeat Aston Villa at Birmingham. Osborne got the winning goal for Tottenham.

Playing for Bolton Wanderers against Leicester City, Pym broke his right wrist.

QUEENS TO BATTLE TIGERS IN SENIOR RUGBY PLAY-OFFS

Commercial Hockey League Gets Under Way in Fine Style

Bapcos Defeat Plimley & Ritchie, Last Year's Champions, in Exciting Battle—International Engineering School Downs Travelers, 2-1

The 1927-1928 hockey season was officially ushered in at the Willows Arena last night with six teams of the Commercial Hockey League in action. Alderman James Adam performed the opening ceremony by facing off the puck and gave the players a short talk on sportsmanship.

The results were as follows: Bapcos 3; Plimley & Ritchie 0. International Engineering School 2; United Commercial Travelers 1. Rink Rats 8; Garrison 1.

The biggest upset of the evening was the 3-0 defeat of the Plimley & Ritchie aggregation, last year's champions, by the paint men. The game was fast throughout and productive of many thrills. McKenzie, with two goals, and McPhee, with one, shared in the scoring honors for the winners. The teams dished up a brand of hockey of a calibre on a par with some of the senior games of last year. Good skating, clever stick-handling and fine combination plays were prominent.

The teams follow: Bapco—Sid Westendale, Sam McKenzie, Allan Pendray, Ralph Sparks, Art Balcom, Jack McPhee, Red Lawson, John Unwin, Harry Blease. Plimley & Ritchie—Fred Noel, Monte Locke, Bill Smith, A. Russell, C. Staples, J. Davidson, F. Tyrell, L. Davis.

TRAVELERS GO UNDER
The International Engineering School's puckchangers grabbed a 2-1 victory from the U.C.T. in a bitterly contested struggle. The students moved fast, stick-handled well and had a slight edge over the Men of the Orip. Matt Hunter, who guarded the hump for the Travelers, was a hard man to beat.

Given, of the winners, worked his way through for a fine goal early in the game. Murray, centre man of the International Engineering Schools, sagged the hump shortly after. Radford saved the U.C.T. from a whitewash when he slapped the puck in the corner of the net.

RINK RATS WIN
Minus some of their stars, the Garrison, playing their first season in the Commercial loop, were snowed under by the Rink Rats, 8-1. The Tonmies, famed for their comeback, promise to make a better showing next week.

The teams were: Rink Rats—B. Symons, Kirby, D. Benwell, W. Humberstone, Nelson Hicks, Bill Newcombe, Bob Radford, Bill Gelling.

U.C.T.—Murray, Givens, A. Murray, Ken Webster, Dick Muirhead, Ed. Blagiere.

U.C.T.—Matt Hunter, D. Spence, Dick Wilson, W. Humberstone, Nelson Hicks, Bill Newcombe, Bob Radford, Bill Gelling.

The Rotary committee in charge of the big ice carnival reports that the idea has met with wholehearted approval and support on the part of the public. Tickets are selling fast as it is realized that this is not only an opportunity to support a worthy cause, but at the same time the show is unique in the history of the city.

Taking advantage of the opportunity to present some of the greatest professional ice stars, who have been brought to the coast for the annual Rotary ice carnival at Vancouver, the local club has been able to secure their services at nominal outlay. Supporting such stars as Margot, Russ Jones, Shipstad and Johnson, Gordon Thompson and Verma Miles, there will be a strong contingent of the Comnaught Skating Club of Vancouver coming to present a finished performance which includes the Dutch Plate extravaganza, ballet exhibition of ten-stepping, waltzing, etc.

It is announced that entries for the various amateur racing events must be in the hands of the committee at 706 Fort Street, United Typewriter office, not later than today at 5 o'clock. This arrangement has been made so that first heats can be run off before Saturday evening, and only finals will be presented on Saturday night. Those who intend to enter in the following events are requested to fill in the necessary form at carnival headquarters, 706 Fort Street, any time before next Saturday noon. Any ticket holder will be entitled to enter this event and provision has been made so that those who do not possess seat tickets may purchase special standing room tickets at a nominal charge.

The prize committee announces that there will be valuable and useful prizes for first, second and third place in practically every event. In addition there will be a great number of special prizes for interesting costumes in the monster fancy dress carnival event.

"So This Is Marriage"

By JUDITH WEST

THE STORY SO FAR
Judith West, editing her high-paying advertising job with a department store, has married Jim Overstreet, has resigned her position from her friends that her marriage won't last. "Make it fifty-fifty," Vera had urged. "I'll keep you and you'll keep me." But Judith and Jim are not so sure. After a happy honeymoon, they are at a dinner. He is sitting at the head of the table, and she is sitting at the foot. He is looking at her, and she is looking at him. He is looking at her, and she is looking at him. He is looking at her, and she is looking at him.

CHAPTER VIII

That first dinner! How thrillingly prepared—how daintily finished—Oh, well, . . . perhaps in ten years I can laugh at it; just now I'm trying to forget; a wife simply must not allow herself to nurse a

Shelly's at Home to Visitors

Bakery Where 4X Bread and Cakes Are Made.

COMMENCING this evening the management of this well-known local establishment will be open to the public for careful inspection as to how bread is made in an up-to-date bakery like that of Shelly's. Mr. J. P. Land, the local manager of the plant, and his staff will be on hand from 7 o'clock until 9 o'clock for the next four evenings to show all comers about the place. Mr. Roy of celery and parsley added to the pot. Mother Jim seems to have a great store of little economy hints. For instance, she told me to remove the carrot before it was too thoroughly cooked and use it in salad. A fricassee chicken, it seems, is one that is pretty well advanced in years: its feet are rough and scaly and its body is pretty well covered with long hairs. Naturally, its flesh will be somewhat tough and the only way to cook tough meat, according to Mother Jim, is by long slow cooking.

But the interesting thing about this dish was what came after the boiling process. Each piece had to be dipped into beaten egg and the finest of bread crumbs and then dropped into boiling fat. Just like a French fried potato, and browned to a rich, golden shade. And it must be served with a gilet gravy to which half a cup of cream was added.

"That doesn't sound very hard," I told her. And to myself I said: "If old Jim doesn't say that it's just like mother used to make, I miss my guess."

For my salad I had what Jim had ordered at restaurants dozens of times: shrimps and sliced tomatoes with a dressing made of mayonnaise mixed with chili sauce and green peppers.

For vegetables I had, fresh green peas and mashed potatoes and for dessert Mother Jim's suggestion: preserved figs and little cakes.

When I figured out the cost of my dinner my conscience began to get fidgety. But I very soon put it in its place. "Plenty of time for hushes and stews and economical cuts," I told it. "This is an occasion!" And so I shelled my peas and put them into cold water to freshen. Then I made the salad dressing and peeled the potatoes. One thing I know about potatoes: my mother used to tell me over and over to peel potatoes very thin in order not to lose the fine mineral salts just beneath the surface. Come to think about it, she used to steam almost all of her vegetables in their skins as she thought, in this way, she saved more of their goodness than if she boiled them.

Things like that make cooking seem almost a scientific job. Wouldn't it be funny if Judy West, mercantile advertiser, should pick up an enthusiasm over "scientific cooking"? Wouldn't Vera and the others guff me!

However, my incipient scientific ardor was somewhat dampened when I saw the little brown stains that the potatoes left on my fingers and the green dye the peas left under my nails. But my faithful lemon juice scrubbing took most of the spots off.

Well, the dinner was finally cooked and I burned myself only once—with the steam from the potatoes. To be sure I had cut my fingers twice while disjointing the chicken, but, for such an amateur, I thought my score wasn't so far below par as might have been expected.

Of course I was dog-tired when Jim came home. This house work is about the hardest work I think I've ever tackled. Wonder whoever invented the idea that only paid a few cents for the work.

"Wheel! Look what we have here," Jim cried in amazement when he saw the table all dolled up in gold and blue and silver and a blue bowl of golden margarine in the centre of the table. "A banquet, eh?"

"Ho, ho! You ain't seen nothing yet," I quipped between sips. "Wait until you see our gorgeous dinner."

Now, whatever can be said against the mashed potatoes and the peas, which for some unknown reason, were a bit tough, that chicken was darn good if I do say it myself. You couldn't have told it from your food chicken was here.

I am saying this as a sort of self-defence. How I waited and waited for just a little word of praise. Jim had eaten a leg and second joint and was doing in the manipulation of a wing. But not one word of approval had he said.

Finally, I couldn't stand it any longer. "Well, aren't you going to give the cook a little word of praise?" Oh, I came out with it very blunty. At once he was full of apology. "Why sure, honey. It's great—everything's great—see how I'm eating—don't you know I've never ate so much. I thought that would be proof of what I think of it."

"It isn't," I answered. "I don't want to imagine compliments; I want to hear them."

Of course, after that, there was nothing for him to do but launch into a very paucor of praise of praise of everything, except the lumpy potatoes and the tough peas and the slightly messy salad came in for their share.

But I had had to work too hard for it. My zest for compliments quite suddenly, had gone. I realized how very tired I was; how fruitless my day's work. And just a bit of praise would have been enough to make up for my burns and my cuts, the vegetable stains, the hard work of planning and marketing, the thought I put into this dinner.

Imagine, then, how stunned I was when he said, with all the tact of a blunderbuss: "Say, honey, why don't you ask mother some time how she cooks chicken? It sure melts in your mouth the way she fixes it." (To Be Continued)

DOROTHY GISH IN 'THE POMPADOUR'

British National Production Stars
Movie Favorite in Louis
XV Court Sequence

Dorothy Gish and Antonio Moreno, two American players, can be credited with a great deal of the success which "Madame Pompadour," British National's new Paramount release, is sure to win. In the picture which was shown to a crowded house at the Dominion Theatre yesterday, they show potentialities of becoming as popular a romantic team as the Vilma Banky-Ronald Colman combination. The love story which these two tell as Pompadour and her impoverished sweetheart, France, will be remembered long after the spectator has left the lobby.

In the supporting roles a group of British players give excellent support. The following especially stand out in important roles: Henri Bosc as King Louis XV; Gibb McLaughlin, Comte Maurepas; Nelson Keys, Duke de Choiseul; Cyril McLaglan, Gogo and Tom Reynolds, Prunier.

The story is one of France in the eighteenth century. It traces the life of Pompadour from her humble beginning right up to the height of her fortune.

GREAT DE MILLE FILM AT CAPITOL

"The Fighting Eagle," Starring Rod La Rocque, Revives Times of Napoleon's Wars

Can a braggar be popular. Is it possible for a man who continually reminds his fellow men of his importance to be well liked by those with whom he comes in contact? This question is open to debate, according to Donald Crisp, who directed Rod La Rocque in the stellar role of "The Fighting Eagle," a new DeMille picture now showing at the Capitol Theatre.

La Rocque, who portrays a swashbuckling, audacious young officer of Napoleon's army, boasts of his exploits and his friendship with Napoleon, and continually refers to Napoleon as "my friend, the Emperor." This boasting thoroughly annoys his fellow officers, for they believe all of his tales to be lies.

Later they learn that he is not a vain idle boaster, but a man whose brave exploits and friendship with Napoleon have given him every right to "blow his own horn." And they like him despite his bragging ways.

In addition to the big picture bill this week, the management is presenting some very fine vaudeville turns, which includes Albert MacGillivray, "The Caruso of the Air," in song selections; under the nom de plume of "Goofy Steppers," will offer some exceptional clever dancing, and the "Kuntz Club" specialty will be "Raymond," the popular overture by Adams, in addition to the tuncful musical programme which they render for the picture attractions.

COLISEUM A packed house greeted the opening performance of the new Ray Bell Stock Company at the Coliseum last night. It was the first night of the new policy of DeMille-class feature pictures and a first rate stock show. The Ray Bell Company was all that it was said to be and more, and its presentation of the mystery comedy-drama entitled "The Girl in the Case," was right up to the mark. This three-act comedy-drama was especially chosen for the opening night because it gives all those in the cast a chance to show their ability. It was crowded with laughs and startling situations from start to finish, and the audience kept in continual uproar. It is hard to pick out any one star of the show, as they all worked well together. Their acting deserves special mention, and shows that they are all seasoned performers. The patrons left the theatre well pleased, knowing that they had had a real entertainment.

course, there are fires for the fire department and police calls for the police department, and no end of colorful and ingenious comedy clashes between the two departments throughout this fast-moving film. June Marlowe and Stephen Carr share the juvenile romance between them, and the deep-dyed city slicker is Sam Hardy.

COLUMBIA As entertaining a film THEATRE production as has reached the screen this season is now on display for the detection of local audiences at the Columbia Theatre. The picture is "Held by the Law," containing all the elements which go to make up a murder mystery story plus a great many surprises that have been added to make the plot more intricate and the whole affair more interesting. A particularly mysterious murder is committed in the first reel, the wrong man is sentenced to be executed for it, and all manner of exciting things happen in the ensuing episodes with the parties involved conducting a race to save the condemned man from the electric chair. One of the most novel features of the picture is its plausibility, a feature often overlooked in stories of this type. Although the innocent man is convicted purely on circumstantial evidence, the legal angles of the plot hold water.

TEACHERS HEAR INSPIRING TALK

INTERESTING ADDRESSES AT COMOX DISTRICT FEDERATION'S CONVENTION

Officers Are Elected for Enslaving Year—Banquet and Social Evening Held

COMOX, Nov. 11.—The second day of the sixth annual convention of the Comox District Teachers' Federation opened with an address by Mrs. T. E. Banks, chairman of the Cumberland Board of School Trustees.

In her address, Mrs. Banks extended a warm welcome to the visiting teachers. The principal of the Cumberland public school, Mr. Apps, who is also president of the Teachers' Federation, delivered a short speech, touching upon some of the discussions of the trustees convention held recently at Harrison Hot Springs. Regarding the resolution that religious should not be a part of the school curriculum, he stated that the only religious teaching some of the pupils got was the reciting of the Lord's Prayer in school. He also thought that the holidays should not be shortened. In the summer time the teachers, for the most part, spent their time at the summer schools, the pupils benefiting thereby. Some of the improvements have been the junior high school movement, the health work of the schools, the option of the student in history and drawing and the progress cards.

Mr. Arthur Ansey, of the Vancouver Normal School, gave a most interesting talk on "Modern Objectives in Teaching Geography." His remarks brought forth a great deal of praise from his audience. He was followed by Mr. T. W. Hall, of the George Jay School, Victoria, on "That I Might Travel in Foreign Countries." Mr. Hall held his audience in rapt attention with his very interesting and humorous address. Mr. Hall spoke of his travels in Madeira, Pompeii, Rome, Venice, Paris, London and other European cities; of the ancient buildings, which are themselves history, and breathe of the martyrs and those who have, in years gone by, sacrificed their lives for causes similar to those of the Great War.

He spoke of the time when, years hence, the inhabitants of the world would say to those who fought in the Great War, "your effort was worth all." The Canadian children should, he thought, be taught more Canadian history; more about the great men who founded and saved Canada and made their country possible, just as the Irish, Welsh, Scotch and English children know all about their native heroes. His trip abroad had been a wonderful lesson in fortitude and courage.

It is seldom given to a Cumberland audience to hear such a speaker as Mr. Hall. For over half an hour he held his listeners entranced while he took them on tour. His graphic and moving description of the services at the Cenotaph at London, England, opened new perspectives of the Great War for his hearers.

The afternoon session opened with a very interesting paper by Mr. Webb, of Nanaimo, on "Composition," while in the primary department, Miss Daly, of Nanaimo, took up the subject of "Primary Reading." Mr. Denton, of the Victoria Normal School, followed Miss Daly and spoke on "Project Work in Intermediate Grade History."

OFFICERS ELECTED
In the election of officers for the ensuing year, the following were chosen: Honorary president, Dr. S. J. Willis; president, Mr. G. W. Stubbs; vice-president, Mrs. Wood; secretary-treasurer, Mr. Wallace. The past president, Mr. G. Apps, was unanimously elected to a place on the executive, and provision was made for the appointment of a representative from each school in the district.

Following the business of the convention, a banquet and social evening was held at the Hotel Hotel, at which Miss Heta Hodge, provincial director of Junior Red Cross work, spoke in a most interesting manner on the subject of "Health and Safety First" education.

VETERANS MARK ARMISTICE DAY

Ninth Anniversary Celebrated at Up-Island Points With Ceremony and Festivity

PARKSVILLE, B.C. Nov. 14.—Over fifty veterans attended the parade held yesterday morning. Under the command of Mr. E. J. Peary they were marched up to the foot of the War Memorial to take part in the memorial service conducted by the Rev. Arrol, Presbyterian minister, and Rev. C. H. Popham, Anglican minister.

Mr. E. J. Peary read the roll call, followed by the two minutes' silence. The hymn "O God, Our Help in Ages Past" was followed by the lesson by Rev. Arrol, then followed the hymn, "O Valiant Hearts, Who to Your Glory Came."

The Rev. Popham said prayers and the wreaths were placed on the memorial. "O Canada" was sung and then the benediction was said. Mr. Hoare sounded the "Last Post," followed by "God Save the King." Despite the inclement weather, there was an excellent attendance.

NANAIMO, Nov. 14.—The ninth anniversary of Armistice Day was celebrated by the Nanaimo branch of the Army and Navy Veterans last night. Under the chairmanship of President John Blair, a programme of vocal and instrumental selections was rendered.

A feature of the evening's festivities was the presentation of a gold watch to ex-President James Cowling, the presentation being made by Mr. T. B. Booth, who expressed the appreciation of the members of the veterans' association to the association by the ex-president during his two years of office.

Mr. Cowling replied, thanking the members and expressed the hope that the association would have a year of abounding prosperity.

LANGFORD, Nov. 14.—Mrs. H. A. Hinks entertained the birthday party at Holmwood in honor of her daughter's (Eileen) eleventh birthday on Saturday afternoon. A good programme of competitions and games were thoroughly enjoyed by the little guests, and the hostess served a delicious supper. Among those present were: Elizabeth and Margaret Smedley, Georgina, Betty and Patty Cooney, Elizabeth Welch, Cecily, Pamela and Henry Bennett, Ruth, Pearce, Stella, Eileen, Oswald, Kenneth and Claude Hinks, Mrs. Ernest Levesque, Mr. and Mrs. Hinks.

HEAVY SNOWFALL AFFECTS HUNTING
NANAIMO, Nov. 14.—Snow to a depth of nearly two feet put a stop to the activities of hunters throughout the district. Birds are protected in compliance with a clause in the Game Act, which makes it unlawful to kill or have in possession pheasants, partridges or grouse when snow wholly or partially covers the ground. Several deer hunters, however, have been fortunate. It being reported that some fine heads have been secured over the week-end. The mountains surrounding Puntledge Lake, Cumberland, and the little mountain at the back of Bevan have been favorite hunting grounds.

NANAIMO PIONEER IS LAID TO REST
NANAIMO, Nov. 14.—The remains of the late Mrs. Lucy Sabiston, a pioneer resident of Nanaimo, whose death occurred at a late hour Tuesday night, were laid to rest Saturday afternoon in the Nanaimo Cemetery, the pallbearers being Senator A. E. Planta, J. M. Radd, John Shaw, Jas. Galbraith, Geo. Cavallary and J. Good. Rev. Stevenson conducted services at the home and graveside.

The late Mrs. Sabiston was a pioneer resident of Nanaimo, having come here in 1862 on the ship Princess Royal and having resided here ever since. During her residence she adopted Mrs. A. A. Miles, now of Victoria, and Miss Isabel Muir, who was with her up to the time of her death. Mrs. Sabiston was the widow of the late Peter Sabiston, one of the early pioneers, who came here on the ship Norman Morrison in 1851. The late Mrs. Sabiston was forced, owing to failing eyesight and general poor health, to lead a retired life during the past few years. The many beautiful floral tributes sent on the occasion of her funeral testified to her many old friendships here and speak eloquently of the high place which she held in the esteem of many friends. At the last sad rites the following out-of-town relatives were present: Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Sabiston, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Miles, Mrs. F. S. Radd, Mrs. W. J. Goepel and Mrs. Thomas Bale.

COURTENAY LADIES FORM HOCKEY CLUB

Service League's Ball at Cumberland Pronounced Success

CUMBERLAND, Nov. 14.—The annual masquerade ball of the Cumberland branch of the British Empire Service League, held at the Illo-Ilo Hall Friday night, was a pronounced success. After careful consideration the following were adjudged winners: Best dressed lady, Miss Kay, Union Bay; best dressed gentleman, Mr. Peary; best character, Miss Haines; best national character, Miss Olive Richardson; best national character, gentleman, Mr. Matt Stewart; best sustained character, Miss Haines; best sustained character, gentleman, Andy Kay, Union Bay; best comic group, Mrs. Lockner, Mrs. Struthers, Miss Carson and Johnny Lockner; best comic lady, Mrs. S. Davis; best comic gentleman, Miss Pearl Hunden; best hobo, A. S. Jones, Union Bay; best clown, L. Scarvado; best advertising character, Mrs. Whycherley. A special prize was donated to Mrs. Miller, of Bevan, for her portrayal of a flower seller (selling poppies).

The judges were Mr. Webb, of Nanaimo; Mr. Corbett, of Powell River; Mrs. Johnson, of Courtenay; Mrs. Maxwell and Mrs. Robertson, of Cumberland.

The Canby Club orchestra supplied music of a first class nature, encores being numerous.

The drawing for the new Chevrolet coach, which should have been held the same evening in aid of a veterans' ward at the local hospital, has been postponed until December 2.

ARMISTICE SERVICE PREVENTED BY SNOW

Roads Impassable at Courtenay—Veterans Gathered at Dinner—Some Wire Trouble

COURTENAY, Nov. 14.—Armistice Day here saw a heavy fall of wet snow which continued all day and all Friday night. Although the temperature was not actually down to freezing, the ground was covered with a heavy blanket by night.

Some of the ex-service men of the district gathered at Courtenay Hotel in the evening, where dinner, at the cost of "one day's pay" was served. After dinner several of those present entertained with stunts, story and song; and all joined in with some of the old songs.

Owing to a second fall of snow on Saturday night, which made roads impassable, Armistice service and the parade to the cairn at Sandwick were called off. Whether the anniversary will be marked at a later date is not known at present.

Owing to the fall of heavy, wet snow, the parade was called off. Whether the anniversary will be marked at a later date is not known at present.

The inclusion of many vocalists of high repute in the cast is itself a guarantee that the purely musical part of the entertainment will be well worth hearing. The humorous elements of the show, which will be staged in the Royal Victoria Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next week, will retain the atmosphere of the real old-time, dark entertainment, while at the same time it will include the very latest songs and episodes illustrative of more modern times.

The members of the troupe are redoubting their efforts as the date for their initial performance approaches. Extra rehearsals are being held, and it is confidently expected that the show will more than measure up to the commendable standard exhibited in former years.

As has been stated previously, the show will open with a play woven around the experiences of a company of blackface soldiers who are recruited in Jamaica, and play their part in the trenches on the fields of Flanders during the Great War. The ludicrous episodes and particularly the antics of a couple of waterfront characters who were impressed into the service last before the company embarked for Europe provide side-splitting comedy.

The part of the stern, relentless sergeant major will be ably sustained by Tom Kelway.

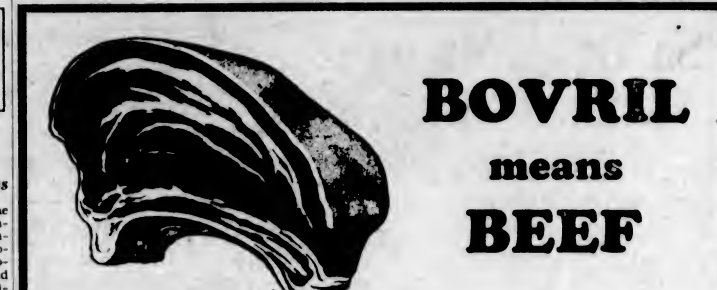

The "circle" which is one of the distinguishing marks of the conventional minstrel show includes popular local vocalists such as Tom Kelway, Lou Conyers, Ernest Butterworth and Dave Macfarlane. The music will be under the direction of Cecil W. Heaton.

Tickets for the show are selling rapidly and may be obtained from all Kiwanians and the principal local stores. The box office will open at ten o'clock a.m. on Friday.

The Kiwanis Minstrel Show is under the patronage of the Lieut. Governor and Miss Mackenzie.

MINSTREL SHOW TO SUSTAIN REPUTATION

Kiwanis Effort Will Be Presented at Royal Victoria Theatre Next Week

The minstrel show has always been regarded by its patrons as a distinctly family affair. By virtue of its nature it makes strong appeal to the children. The more subtle sallies in some of the jokes may be lost to the younger among them, but the smiling black faces, the funny contortions, and ridiculous antics are enjoyed by all. That is one of the reasons why, in spite of the multiplicity of newer attractions, the darkie minstrel show has never lost its popularity. It is worthy of note that when children used to "play at theatre" they would almost invariably choose the minstrel show as their pattern, using burnt cork liberally and in such a manner as to cause stern rebukes from mother.

The Kiwanis minstrel show, which will be staged in the Royal Victoria Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next week, will retain the atmosphere of the real old-time, dark entertainment, while at the same time it will include the very latest songs and episodes illustrative of more modern times.

An Endorsement That No One Could Buy

Given to the Parker Duofold by Anthony Fokker, Famous Monoplane Designer

Read what he says about this famous writing instrument

When Anthony Fokker, designer of monoplanes used in record-breaking flights to the North Pole, France and Hawaii, endorses the Parker Duofold, he speaks with authority.

"Any engineer," he says, "appreciates a precision instrument. That's why I use a Parker Pen."

To him, precision in a pen means immediate writing at the touch of point to paper. It means the famous pressureless touch, which makes the Parker Duofold the easiest-writing instrument the world has ever seen.

It means continuous perfect writing—a pen that clears the track for thinking, with no petty interruptions. If you want to know why "Fokker" endorses Parker Pens, try one at your dealer's.

But don't be misled by colour. That may be imitated. The pen that writes differently—Fokker's favorite "precision pen"—is stamped "Geo. S. Parker" on the barrel.

EMPRESS LINER HAS ROUGH TRIP

RUSSIA RUNS INTO HEAVY WEATHER ON VOYAGE FROM ORIENT

Vessel Brings Silk Cargo Valued at $5,000,000—Tokio Financial Arrives

After a stormy passage, the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Russia docked at the Orient at the Rithet Consolidated piers at 10:30 o'clock Sunday night.

Two days out from Yokohama, the Russia ran into a bad blow which lasted three days and nights. No damage was done to the superstructure of the liner, however, and there were no injuries to crew or passengers.

The Russia brought across a cargo of silk valued at nearly $5,000,000. She had 112 tons measurement for discharge here and 4,549 tons measurement for Vancouver.

Among the passengers was Mr. Chieko Fukukawa, financier of Tokyo, who came to this country for the purpose of inspecting his timber holdings in British Columbia.

Mr. James A. Langley, Canadian Trade Commissioner at Tokyo, was another aboard the Russia. Mr. Langley was optimistic about Japan's financial condition. By the commencement of 1928, he said, there would be an extensive trade revival in which Canada would share largely.

Canada's exports of grain, lumber and pulp to Japan would grow, he predicted.

Other prominent passengers included W. P. Monty, Consul-General for the Netherlands at New York, returning to his post after a visit to his home; A. Van Hengel, of Amsterdam, director of Java-Japan-China steamship line, and managing director of the Amsterdam Bank, who is on his way to his home; Dr. E. Boedeker, of the Society of Chemical Industry in Basel, Switzerland; J. C. O. Anderson, acting commissioner of customs at Hun-chun, China, en route to his home in London; E. Springer, president of the Milton E. Springer Company of Manila; Brig-General E. B. McNaughton, director of the British-American Tobacco Company, en route to London; G. F. Tolter, buyer and manager for John Wanamaker of New York in the Orient, returning to the United States center; and H. S. F. McBain, a prominent Shanghai merchant, going to the United States on business.

Charlotte Is Available Again

Has Been Out of Service for Two And a Half Months, Following Accident

The Princess Charlotte will be turned over to the British Columbia Coast Service today on completion of the installation of oil tanks at Yarrow.

Since the end of August she has been out of commission, first for repairs following her accident on Vichnefak rock, and since those repairs were complete for the fitting of oil tanks. The cost has been the largest single item of expenditure on repair work in this fleet during 1927, and has entailed a considerable loss of revenue in addition.

It was stated at the offices yesterday that the Charlotte will not be used until the holiday season, as present capacity of the steamers operating in the triangular run being sufficient to take care of the travel.

The Princess Adelaide went to Yarrow yesterday to have a new propeller blade placed in position, having dropped one off Port Townsend.

The freighter Nootka will leave again for the West Coast today, having been in port for inspection. She will continue to ply while the herring fishing remains active off the coast.

OLD REGULATIONS WILL BE REVIVED

Province to Enact Cannery Legislation if Supreme Court Dismisses Dominion Appeal

VANCOUVER, Nov. 14.—Pacific Coast canners who are said to be taking advantage of recent decisions holding that the Dominion Government lacks jurisdiction over their operations, will not be able to continue to carry on in disregard of long-standing regulations, it is learned.

Hon. William Sloan, Provincial Commissioner of Fisheries, stated that if the Supreme Court of Canada upheld British Columbia decisions disallowing Federal jurisdiction, the province will promptly assume control.

If the Dominion Government's present appeal against the British Columbia rulings is dismissed at Ottawa, Mr. Sloan stated that he would introduce legislation at the coming session of the House to supplant the former Federal control. In any event, he stated, the whole situation would be reviewed by the Legislature.

STOCK TAKEN UP FOR MILL

Worst Project Meets With Fine Response, Directors of Chamber of Commerce Are Told

PUBLIC MEETING CALLED FRIDAY

The situation with respect to the establishment of the worsted mill project seems to indicate that this will be brought to a successful conclusion. The directors of the Chamber of Commerce have endorsed the proposal, following the explanation of the financial arrangements proposed, and have recommended to the city council the submitting of a by-law along the lines of the proposed aid to be offered by the city.

In addition to this action the effort that has been made to interest local capital in the enterprise has been attended with the greatest success, and the stock provided for under the plans to be taken by individual subscribers has been practically all subscribed.

At a meeting of the directors of the Chamber held yesterday morning, the report of the special committee from the industrial group under the chairmanship of Mr. John Wood, who has been in charge of the project, was presented.

In addition to the members of the committee, there was also present Major Cuthbert Holmes, chairman of the industrial committee of the city council, who was able to explain the whole situation and elucidate the points connected with the proposal which has been submitted by Mr. John Moore, of Bradford.

It was pointed out that the proposal was one that was based on the soundest principles, and that with an experienced and successful man in charge like Mr. Moore, there was no reason why the factory should not be a success.

There will be a public meeting called for Friday evening, when the matter will be fully explained to the citizens.

DEATH OF P. B. REID OCCURS IN TORONTO

OTTAWA, Nov. 14.—Succumbing to the effects of an operation performed late Tuesday at a Toronto hospital, Percy Bearlato Reid, of Dawson, Y.T., gold commissioner of the Yukon, died there Saturday night. In the early days he went to the Yukon subsequent to the gold rush of 1898 and became associated with the gold commissioner's office, in the capacity of mine recorder at Cariboo, now known as Carcross, and various other points in the outlying districts, and also at Dominion Creek as inspector. Some years afterwards he was transferred to Ottawa and here in the department of immigration and colonization he became controller of Chinese immigration and the Pacific divisional superintendent. In 1925 he was appointed gold commissioner of the Yukon Territory, which title he bore until his death. Mr. Reid's demise was the culmination of a lengthy indisposition beginning during an inspection trip at Mayo in the Yukon last August. As a result he came "outside" on one of the last boats of the season and journeyed to Toronto, where an operation was thought imperative.

Pacific Cable Reported Losing Money This Year

LONDON, Nov. 14.—A disturbing report with regard to the financial results of the Pacific cable, the Canadian Press learns, will be presented shortly to the government concerned, those of Great Britain, Canada, Australia and New Zealand. The Empire radio system and wireless generally have resulted in causing a reduction in the Pacific Cable Board's receipts at the rate of $475,000 annually, it is said, and this will not represent the peak of the board's loss. The Pacific Cable Board is apprehensive that the beam station at Montreal, which will be completed shortly, will result in increased competition and will affect unfavorably the present cable traffic from the United States.

NEW COMER BUYS DOUGLAS HOTEL

Mr. R. Castellani Purchases Local Business—Taking It Over at Once

The Douglas Hotel has passed into the hands of Mr. Castellani, who took over this well-known hostelry yesterday morning, and will operate it henceforth. The purchase of this business by the new owner, whose home has been in Montreal, was the result of a visit to the city followed by his becoming enamored of Victoria, and reaching the decision that he would move here and enter into business.

While Mr. Castellani has bought the hotel business as a going concern from Mr. J. H. Killick, there is a possibility that he may also purchase the building itself also from the Credit Foncier, who are the present proprietors.

The Douglas Hotel, which is situated at the corner of Douglas Street and Pandora Avenue, opposite the City Hall, is well situated for business. It had been in operation, at first under the name of the Prince George Hotel, since 1912.

Mr. Castellani, who has had a lifetime experience in the restaurant and hotel business, fifteen of which was spent in the city of Montreal, will return to the East, leaving about Wednesday, when he will make arrangements for the bringing of his wife and family to this city. They will move here as quickly as they can carry out their arrangements for doing so.

Mr. Castellani will make some alterations in the business, catering to the very best trade, he says.

Tobacco Growers in Ontario Form Pool

TORONTO, Nov. 14.—Tobacco growers of southwestern Ontario are developing a pool, known as the Canadian Tobacco Growers' Co-operative, which is said to have already nearly three-quarters of its million dollars' worth of stock subscribed. Handling of the tobacco crops in Essex, Kent, Elgin and Lambton was the primary objective, but as a result of recent developments plans are practically complete for a five-year contract arrangement. From twenty to thirty cents a pound is being paid members for this year's crop.

HOME ECONOMICS CREDIT SUBJECT

Recent Action of University of British Columbia Governors Reported to Local Council

Although the campaign for the endowment of a chair in home economics has not yet resulted in the collection of the amount required for the purpose, the governors of the University of British Columbia, at a meeting on November 8, recognized the merits of the case to the extent of deciding that matriculation credits for this subject would be given girl students from high schools making application for entrance to the university. The fact was reported to the local Council of Women yesterday by Mrs. J. W. Gibson, convenor of the council's special committee in connection with the home economics fund. Great satisfaction was expressed by the meeting that the campaign had achieved so much in an indirect way, although the total amount collected in Victoria on behalf of the endowment fund was but $1,429. This, Mrs. Gibson informed the meeting, would remain in the bank here until the campaign is completed. The president, Miss Crease, spoke in a congratulatory way of the skillful way in which the committee were financed itself, having met all its own expenses. Special reference was also made to the work done in her official capacity by Miss McLennan, provincial organizer of home economics, and Miss A. Riddell.

Two other interesting reports given to the council were by Mrs. Lottie Brown, convenor of the citizenship committee, and by Mrs. Schofield, convenor of the committee on mental hygiene, which thought the mere fact that the women of Victoria had brought out a candidate had stimulated interest in the forthcoming civic elections.

Several of the affiliated societies of the Local Council had endorsed Mrs. Crocker's candidature, an action which she recommended to other affiliated societies, for it served as a means of publicity. There was still no woman candidate for the school board, although it was not yet late, the election not being until December 8. Mrs. Schofield, referring to some of the investigation of the question of mental hygiene, which she carried out during her recent visit in the East, told about an experiment in Ottawa, in which the National Council was interested, being a school for subnormal children of similar grading. An effort is being made to see just how trainable such children are under good home conditions. Mrs. Schofield also reported that the University of British Columbia offered a course of lectures on psychology and mental hygiene to be given after Christmas, the lecturers to be Dean Coleman and Dr. Wyman. There will be five lectures, all open to the public.

The treasurer, Mrs. Galbraith, reported a balance in hand after the payment of the affiliation fee to the Provincial Council. She also submitted a report in connection with the lecture given recently under Local Council auspices by Miss Bridges.

SCIENCE STUDY NEEDS HONESTY

Dr. Percy Elliott Addresses Dinner Meeting of Research Subject

The expression, "laws of nature," said Professor Percy Elliott, in addressing the members of the Ye Knights of Ye Round Table, last evening, was an unfortunate one in dealing with the subject which was so described. He went on to say that what was so described as a law was in reality simply a statement of fact as to what took place under a certain set of circumstances.

In designating them as laws the idea of something in the matter of punishment for violation, and of principles that were subject to enforcement was conveyed which was misleading.

In the study of science, Professor Elliott pointed out that it was necessary to exercise the most absolute honesty in getting at the facts. There were three steps under the methods employed in scientific research. These were to be designated as getting the facts, classifying them, and finally drawing the conclusions from these facts so gleaned.

Honesty was emphasized in getting of the facts and in the classification of them. When the subject of drawing conclusions was entered upon, there was care needed, for everyone was subject to inherent prejudices that would be exercised without wishing to do so, and might influence the conclusions reached.

It was therefore necessary to admonish the student of science to accept the conclusions to be drawn, no difference how it hurt, or how it interfered with any preconceived ideas on the subject. The training in science called for utter honesty and integrity on the part of the student.

The mind of the mob was not the sum of the individual minds. There would appear to be a mind of its own possession on the mob.

The study of science had had its influence upon the international relationships, said the speaker, who went on to show how this striving after the exact truth had influenced these relationships.

On the conclusion of the address a hearty vote of thanks was accorded Professor Elliott for his address. This was done on the motion of Mr. P. Philip and Colonel W. N. Winsby.

JUBILEE HOSPITAL RANKS FOURTH AMONG THE FOUR LARGE COAST CITIES

Only 45 Per Cent of Patients' Bills Are Collected—State Health Insurance Being Considered

Of the four large coast cities of this province Victoria stands last on the list in collection of bills from city hospital patients. The City Council received answers to the inquiries it made in other cities at last night's meeting.

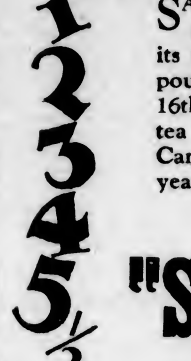

The council was informed that Prince Rupert General Hospital had during the last ten months collected sixty-five per cent of the bills from patients. Vancouver General Hospital's percentage was fifty-five, the Royal Columbian, of New Westminster, 52.4 per cent, and that of the Royal Jubilee Hospital, forty-five per cent.

Alderman Percy Brown, a director of the Hospital Board, pointed out, however, that Victoria's percentage would be higher if some of the patients at present in the hospital were removed to homes. There were those in the hospital who really should not be classified as hospital patients.

A Kamloops resolution, asking the Provincial Government to enforce the compulsory state health insurance as a means of financing hospitals was received by the council for its approval and support at the next legislative session. The resolution was referred to the health committee for report.

A CLEANSING DIET

Many who have been reading my daily health articles have been sufficiently interested to wish to try the orange fast which I so often recommend. In today's article I am going to lay down some simple rules which anyone can follow without any possibility of harmful consequences. No matter what disorder you may be suffering from, I can assure you that you will be benefited by taking a few days of the orange fast, followed by a restricted, cleansing diet.

The first thing to do is to determine to stick to the orange fast for five days. For these five days I advise you to take an eight-ounce glass of orange juice every two hours. Keep to a regular schedule, and you will find that you will get better results and have no distressing symptoms, unless, perhaps, it is the first day or two, when you may have a slight headache, due to the stirring up of systemic toxins.

Every day you must take one or two enemata, using plain warm water, and not over a quart at a time. Also, take two sponge or shower baths to keep the pores of the skin open and to assist in elimination.

This fast will give your alimentary canal a rest, and you will eliminate vast quantities of impurities which will relieve the body of accumulated poisons and help you in every way to overcome any disorder from which you may be suffering.

After the five-day fast try the following diet for several weeks.

Breakfast—One egg, prepared in any manner except by frying, three or four pieces of Melba toast, small dish of sliced fruit.

Lunch—Choice of as much of the following fruits: Apples, apricots, peaches, pears, grapes, oranges, grapefruit, plums, pineapple, tomatoes or melons.

Dinner—Choice of one protein, such as lean meat, fish or fowl. (Use not over one-quarter of a pound). Choice of one or more of the following non-starchy vegetables: Celery, spinach, small string beans, asparagus, cucumber, egg plant, beet tops, turnip tops, small beets, small carrots, small parsnips, small turnips, lettuce, okra, oyster plant (mushy), kale, and mushrooms.

Choice of one or more of the following raw salad vegetables: Ripe olives, alligator pear (avocado), endive, nasturtium leaves and flowers, mallow, oyster plant, lettuce, small beets, carrots, turnips or parsnips, parsley, cucumber, asparagus, spinach and celery. No desserts.

Continue this diet for several weeks and then gradually change to using the menus which I print in this column each week.

You will find this a true cleansing diet, and you will be surprised at the results you will receive from following this strict curative regime.
